

STEEL & TUBE APPOINTS ANNA MORRIS TO GM PEOPLE & CULTURE

Steel & Tube Holdings Limited (NZX: STU) is pleased to advise of the appointment of Anna Morris as General Manager People & Culture.

Anna is an experienced executive with a background in human resources, law and corporate services. She is currently Head of People & Performance at Fletcher Construction Company Ltd and has previously held senior roles with John Holland Group and Unilever Australia.

Steel & Tube's focus on people has been identified as one of the four strategic pillars under the company's Striving for Excellence strategy.

"We are delighted Anna will be joining Steel & Tube's leadership team", said Mark Malpass, CEO of Steel & Tube. "Part of being a leading company is having high performing, talented people and investing to help them realise their potential. Anna is an outstanding executive and her skills and experience will be of significant value as we seek to create a culture and environment that inspires and rewards our people.

"An important part of Anna's role will be to further develop Steel & Tube's high performance culture, training, development, succession planning and internal communications initiatives."

Anna will commence her employment with Steel & Tube in January 2019. She replaces Dave Clegg who has resigned to take up a new opportunity after eight years of service.
