

IAG appoints Christine Stasi Group Executive People, Performance and Reputation

IAG Managing Director and CEO Peter Harmer today announced the appointment of Christine Stasi as Group Executive People, Performance and Reputation.

Mr Harmer said the appointment of Ms Stasi, who will report directly to him, will significantly add to the expertise of his leadership team.

“I am very much looking forward to Christine joining IAG’s leadership team. Given her significant experience across a range of industries, Christine will play a key role in helping to drive our company performance and bring to life our purpose – to make your world a safer place,” Mr Harmer said.

Ms Stasi comes to IAG from the Commonwealth Bank of Australia where she is Executive General Manager for Business & Private Banking and Institutional Banking & Markets.

Ms Stasi has held senior positions across a range of industries including telecommunications, professional services and banking, and her experience includes Optus Communications, PricewaterhouseCoopers and NAB. Ms Stasi will start at IAG in late October.
