Orion Health signs contract for Singapore Interoperability solution

Auckland, New Zealand – Orion Health has signed a five-year contract with Integrated Health Information Systems (IHIS), the health technology agency for Singapore, for the delivery of a Singapore-wide deployment of a Healthcare Enterprise Service.

Rhapsody will deliver the interoperability services and infrastructure for the public hospitals comprising the National Electronic Health Record of Singapore. Orion Health was awarded the contract following a competitive RFP process.

Orion Health Executive Vice President for Asia Pacific, Darren Jones says, “We are very excited to be working with IHIS on a project that will improve how systems across the health system in Singapore integrate and communicate with each other. This strategic win is very important to Orion Health, and are looking forward to seeing hospitals and patients benefit from the efficiencies it will bring”.

The project will commence immediately and contributes to Orion Health’s outlook for the 2018 financial year.
