

15 September 2017

Annual report, restated financial statements

The New Zealand Oil & Gas annual report is released today with a restatement of the Financial Statements to update Note 9(c) in relation to imputation credits.

Financial Statements released on 29 August 2017 have been amended following a review of the imputation credits undertaken during the process of responding to takeover activity.