Auckland Airport provides updated passenger information for March

On Friday 13 March 2020, Auckland Airport provided preliminary passenger data for the month of February 2020 and an indication of international passenger data for the first ten days of March 2020.

In the seven days to Monday 16 March, there was a 25% reduction in international passenger numbers versus last year. On Monday alone, there was a 44% fall in international traveller numbers versus the same day of the week in 2019.

Auckland Airport will continue to keep the market updated as significant new information emerges.
