NZX Market Release

Tourism Holdings Limited (THL)

Earthquake Update

thl would like to advise that, based on the information we have to date, thankfully there are no issues of note for the business resulting from the earthquakes this week in New Zealand. Customers, crew and facilities are all fine.

We have a number of thl owned motorhomes with customers in the Kaikoura area, as well as a Kiwi Experience coach load of passengers. We are working with authorities and private helicopter operators to enable our customers to leave Kaikoura through various means and we will be assisting them with the remainder of their travel plans when they return to Christchurch.

We currently expect we will be able to collect the vast majority of the motorhomes and the coach within a week. This does not cause any disruption to other services.

From a revenue perspective, we have had no abnormal levels of cancellations and no perceivable impact on bookings since the earthquake.

At this point in time, based on our past experience, including the booking pattern post the 2011 Christchurch earthquake, there is confidence that the business will remain on track with expectations for the 2017 financial year.
