IQE – INTENTION TO CHANGE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Intueri Education Group Limited (NZX: IQE) today announces that Nico Marx has notified the Intueri Board of his intention to resign as director, at a date yet to be confirmed, but expected to be before 28 April 2017, following his acceptance of a new role based in Singapore.

The intention is that the board will appoint a replacement director with appropriate skills complementary to those of Mr Marx. This director will hold office until the next annual shareholders meeting, when the new director will retire and may offer his or herself for election.

Chair of Intueri, Chris Kelly, commented; “The Board acknowledges Nico’s contribution to the Intueri Board and its committees. The Board is focussed on maintaining governance experience appropriate to Intueri’s current needs and will announce the new Board appointment shortly.”
