COMMENTARY ON CASHFLOW

Q Technology Group Limited ("QTG") has today released its quarterly cash flow report for the quarter ended 30 September 2016 showing a negative cash movement of $230k.

The Board is pleased to announce that Q1 sales totalling $5.7m represented a 19% increase over the corresponding period last year which is consistent with the turnaround being implemented by the board and management as previously advised.

The current phase of the plan is focused on balance sheet repair and so it is pleasing announce gross inventory reduced $1.2m (14%), and this was used to reduce trade creditors, resulting in a net cash outflow from operating activities for the period. Trade creditors reduced $940k in Q1 and total current trade and other payables reduced $1.5m during the period. This is a very good result consistent with the board's previous advice that inventory management would be a focus of the business. Gross inventory reduced from $8.6m at the end of June to $7.4m at the end of September with further reduction expected by the end of December 2016.

In line with the balance sheet repair focus the company announced a rights issue on 23 August with a maximum of $1.96m to be raised and allocated on 7 October. At this time there remains $614k of shortfall to allocate and the funds received will further improve the first half cash position. The board will also continue discussions and look to place the shortfall within the allowed time period. In advance of the capital raising, loans from participating shareholders in the amount of $592k were received during the period. Most of this remained as cash at bank at 30 September of $585k, an improvement of $364k from 30 June.

Overall the board is pleased with the progress which has been made in the revenue turnaround of the business over the last 12 months and will continue to closely monitor the implementation of the next phase of the plan to streamline the operating model and continue with actions to repair the balance sheet in order to deliver improved results in FY2017.
