COCA-COLA AMATIL ANNOUNCES APPOINTMENT OF CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Coca-Cola Amatil (CCA) today announces the appointment of Martyn Roberts as the Group's Chief Financial Officer.

An accomplished CFO with 20 years' experience in senior finance roles, Mr Roberts joins CCA from Woolworths Australia where he has held various senior executive positions, most recently Finance Director – Supermarkets. He previously spent over 9 years as CFO with Louis Vuitton where he gained international experience in both Europe and Asia.

CCA's Group Managing Director Alison Watkins said, "I am delighted that Martyn will be joining the team at CCA. Martyn is a highly credentialed executive with broad experience in general management and in leading finance and corporate strategy, both in Australia and offshore. He has a strong track record of success in corporate finance, commercial management, strategy development and driving performance improvement."

Martyn will start his new role as Group CFO during CCA's third quarter.
