MEDIA RELEASE

Byte Power Group wines excel at prestigious wine events

Byte Power Group Limited (ASX: BPG) ("Byte Power Group"), today announced that its 8 Eagles wines have been recognised at the 2014 Royal Melbourne Wine Awards and the Sydney International Wine Competition for 2015.

Mr Alvin Phua, Chairman and CEO of Byte Power Group commented on the competition results: "We are extremely pleased that our wines are receiving good recognition and acceptance. These results validate the taste and quality we have carefully selected in our wine range and we look forward to increased sales given the industry's recognition of our wines."

8 Eagles wines are owned and operated under Wine Power, a 100% subsidiary of Byte Power Group Limited. Wine sales for the Group have continued to grow and it is expected to perform well with the coming of the festive season.

The positive outcomes received from the 8 Eagles participation in recent wine competitions are a true testament to the quality of wines which Wine Power has been promoting and a great achievement in such early stages of the wine business.

Royal Melbourne Wine Awards 2014 - Results

The Royal Melbourne Wine Awards is one of the most respected wine shows in Australia, due to the credibility of benchmarking, the quality of entrants and the ongoing support and contribution from the Victorian and greater Australian wine industry. Today it is recognised as one of Australia's most prestigious wine award programs attracting over 3,000 entries.

With such respectable standards in judging and being amongst such other high calibre entrants, it was with great honour that the 8 Eagles Platinum Label 2010 Shiraz was awarded a Bronze medal in the category of Shiraz 2011 to 2009.

Sydney International Wine Competition 2015 - Results

The 2015 Sydney International Wine Competition was judged recently by a panel of 14 international and Australian judges, with the final selection of wines judged alongside appropriate food dishes to ensure that the results reflected the way most consumers drink wine – with food.

The results of the Sydney International Wine Competition for 2015 saw the 8 Eagles Red Label 2009 Shiraz receive finalist status which meant it was rated amongst the top 20% of the total entries judged with food.
