WiseWay Appoints Brandon Teo to the Board

WiseWay Group Limited (ASX: WWG or “WiseWay”) announced today that the Board has appointed Mr Brandon Teo as a Non-Executive Director effective immediately as part of the company’s global expansion strategy, especially in the Southeast Asian region.

Mr Teo is the founder of TAF E-Logistics (“TAF”), a Singapore-based freight and logistics company that has recently been acquired by WiseWay. His career spans 40 years working with well-regarded international companies in the freight industry including Qantas, Northern Airfreight, and Air Express International.

WiseWay’s Chairman, Mr Michael Hughes commented, “We are excited to welcome Brandon to the WiseWay Board. He brings a wealth of global logistics experience and an extensive network of relationships in the industry.

“Brandon’s support was also instrumental throughout the completion of WiseWay’s strategic acquisition of TAF, a successful business that he has built and led over the last 30 years.

“Brandon has an outstanding track record working with many Australian, American, and international companies on expanding their footprint in Southeast Asia, and we look forward to his contribution to WiseWay’s global growth plans.”

Mr Teo commented, “I am honoured to be joining WiseWay’s Board. The company has impressive global capabilities and a strategic vision for long-term growth, and I look forward to working with the team to benefit from the opportunities inherent in the Southeast Asian market and globally.”

Ends.
