

ASX ANNOUNCEMENT

19 April 2022

Appointment of Chief Financial Officer

3P Learning Limited ("3PL") today announces the appointment of Anton Clowes to the role of Chief Financial Officer ("CFO") with effect from Tuesday, 26 April 2022.

Anton brings proven CFO experience to 3PL, having served as CFO of Servcorp Limited (ASX:SRV), Australia's largest listed flexible workspace provider, for the past 6 years and in a range of previous senior executive and financial roles at DUET Group (ASX:DUE), Sydney Airport (ASX:SYD), Macquarie Group Limited and Deloitte.

3PL's Chief Executive Officer, Jose Palmero said "We look forward to Anton joining our team as CFO and contributing his skills and experience to 3P Learning. It is an exciting time for the company and having Anton on board gives us further confidence that our financial systems and processes will continue to add value to our purpose and commercial strategy."

As previously announced, after 8 years with 3PL, our current CFO Dimitri Aroney will be stepping down in early July for family reasons. Dimitri will work with Anton until then to ensure a smooth transition of duties and responsibilities.

This announcement has been authorised for release by 3PL's Chief Executive Officer.

For further information, please contact:

3P Investor Relations
investors@3plearning.com