Answer: Yes

8.8.2 Has the entity taken any steps, or does it propose to take any steps, to raise further cash to fund its operations and, if so, what are those steps and how likely does it believe that they will be successful?

Answer: Yes, the Company taken steps to raise further cash to fund its operations, which includes mandating a leading Australian investment and financial advisory firm (unrelated to the Company or its directors / employees) to manage a capital raising on behalf of the Company.

Given:

- this investment and financial advisory firm's long track record in successfully raising funds for its clients,
- the world-class asset that is Australian Mines' Sconi Nickel-Cobalt-Scandium Project in North Queensland, Australia,
- the favourable current market conditions for nickel and cobalt focussed resource companies,
- the strong tailwind Australian Mines' is experiencing from the global shift towards clean energy and electric vehicles and the role Australian Mines can play in this shift, and
- Australian Mines' proven track record for successfully raising funds over the past 10 or more years, the Company believes that there is a high probability that any capital raising will be successful.

8.8.3 Does the entity expect to be able to continue its operations and to meet its business objectives and, if so, on what basis?

Answer: Yes, Australian Mines expects to be able to continue its operations and to meet its business objectives. This is on the basis that the upcoming capital raising is anticipated to fund the Company through to Final Investment Decision (FID) for the Sconi Project.

Note: where item 8.7 is less than 2 quarters, all of questions 8.8.1, 8.8.2 and 8.8.3 above must be answered.
