The Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (“Corporations Act”) requires the financial report (which includes the financial statements and directors’ declaration), the directors’ report and the auditor’s report for the last financial year to be laid before the Annual General Meeting. There is no requirement either in the Corporations Act or in the Constitution of the Company for shareholders to approve the financial report, the directors’ report or the auditor’s report. If you appoint two proxies you must specify the percentage of votes or number of securities for each proxy, otherwise each proxy may exercise half of the votes.
