

Aurora Tank Ecological Study Commences

Marmota Limited ('Marmota' ASX:MEU) is pleased to advise that our first ever environmental study at Aurora Tank is now underway with the arrival of a specialist ecology team.

The survey (fauna and flora) is a necessary component for a Mining Lease application.

Early next week, a water bore drilling team + drill rig will be arriving at Aurora Tank – drilling for water. Water is needed for the diamond drilling program (currently planned for January), to feed a heap leach operation, and for the camp. ■
