

Factor Therapeutics Appoints Corporate Advisor

Brisbane (Australia) 25 January 2021: Factor Therapeutics Limited (ASX:FTT) (“Company”) announces that the Company has appointed Taylor Collison Limited to assist the Board in broadening the focus and access of commercial opportunities, particularly in areas beyond the current Board’s specific expertise in biotechnology.

Taylor Collison is a leading non-bank financial services firm providing a suite of services across equity capital markets (for corporate, institutional and retail clients) and corporate transactions. It has extensive corporate advisory expertise, across various sectors, in the areas of mergers, acquisitions, asset and business sales, joint ventures and partnerships. While it has relevant experience in the biotech and healthcare sectors, being previous advisor to FTT and having lead capital raisings for companies such as Telix Pharmaceuticals Limited, Taylor Collison is known for expertise in resources, technology and more generally industrial businesses.

Taylor Collison will assist in assessing projects brought to the attention of the Company by other parties.
