ASX Announcement

17 December 2018

VOLUNTARY DELISTING FROM ASX

Further to its announcement on 14 December 2018, Litigation Capital Management Limited (LCM or the Company) has today submitted a formal application for the removal of LCM from the official list of the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) pursuant to ASX Listing Rule 17.11.

Subject to formal approval by ASX, LCM expects it will be removed from the official list of ASX with effect from market close on 21 December 2018.

LCM has obtained in-principle advice from ASX in relation to the removal of LCM from the official list of ASX. ASX has confirmed that, based solely on the information provided, on receipt of an application from LCM for its removal from the official list of ASX under Listing Rule 17.11, it would be likely to remove LCM from the official list, on a date to be decided by ASX, subject to compliance with the following conditions:

1. LCM sends written or electronic communication to all security holders whose securities are held on LCM's Australian register, in form and substance satisfactory to ASX, setting out:
  - (a) the nominated time and date at which it will be removed from the ASX official list and that:
    - (i) if they wish to sell their securities on ASX, they will need to do so before then; and
    - (ii) if they don't, thereafter they will only be able to sell the underlying securities on-market on the Alternative Investment Market of the London Stock Exchange (AIM),
  - (b) generally what they will need to do if they wish to sell their securities on AIM;
2. the removal shall not take place any earlier than (i) one month after the date the information in condition 1 has been sent to security holders and (ii) until LCM is admitted to, and its securities quoted on, AIM; and
3. LCM releases the full terms of ASX's in-principle decision to the market upon making a formal application to ASX to remove LCM from the official list of ASX.
