Update on Portfolio performance

Benjamin Hornigold Ltd (ASX: BHD) is pleased to advise its portfolio increased in value approximately 3% over its first week of trading.

Executive Chairman, Stuart McAuliffe, said, "This was particularly satisfying given last week saw the largest decline in equity markets this year, with the ASX falling 3% and the USA having its largest one-day fall in six months. However, we were well positioned and believe there will be more opportunities this year."
