Buderim CEO Resignation

Buderim Group Limited (Buderim) advises the resignation of CEO, Roger Masters to pursue other opportunities.

Mr Masters signalled his likely tenure was 3-5 years at the time of joining Buderim in March 2013 and will step down on 15 December 2017.

Roger has overseen the divestment of the non-performing baking business, the acquisition of the MacFarms orchard, the refresh of the ginger branding, introduction of new products such as snack packs & ginger beer drinks and the capital re-structure of the business.

The company will undertake a search for a suitable replacement over the next three months.

Steve Morrow, Chairman thanks Roger for his contribution to Buderim Group.

End.
