These fair value movements are one-off, non-cash accounting adjustments and are not considered to form part of the normal operations of Bathurst. Included in Bathurst's results for 30 June 2018 is $43.0m profit after tax relating to Bathurst's 65% share of equity accounted profit in BT Mining Limited (30 June 2017: loss of $0.8m). The audit report accompanying the financial statements contains two emphasis of matter paragraphs. The first is regarding the prior year restatement of the Company's convertible debt instruments, and draws the reader's attention to note 1 Y in the financial statements which states that the Company has restated at 30 June 2017 the conversion feature of the convertible debt instruments from equity to derivative liabilities. The second refers readers to note 29 (d) in the financial statements which discloses a contingent liability in relation to legal proceedings brought against the Company by L&M Coal Holdings Limited. The audit opinion was not modified in respect of either of these matters.
