Alcidion appoints industry veteran to Executive Management Team

Adelaide, South Australia, 14 December 2017 - Alcidion Group Limited (ASX: ALC), today announced that Kevin Moynihan, a veteran Health IT Executive and founder of clinical IT company, Kestral Computing, has joined the company as Executive Vice President of Business Development. Moynihan will manage emerging business initiatives and help identify new growth opportunities, with an initial focus on Alcidion's new Miya Cloud AI, Analytics platform, its new revenue/safety modules and the recently acquired Smartpage product set.

Moynihan is a highly successful Health IT entrepreneur having founded and grown Kestral Computing prior to divesting the business to Constellation Software Inc (TSX: CSU) in April 2012. Following the acquisition of Kestral Computing, Moynihan continued in the role of Chief Executive Officer until July 2017.

Kestral Computing designs radiology, laboratory and clinical information systems for the health industry in Australia and New Zealand and has an extensive installed base.

Alcidion's Chairman and CEO Ray Blight said, "Our singular commitment to Clinical Information Systems, our market-leading position and investments in AI have enabled Alcidion to attract the industry's best people. Kevin is a recognised leader throughout the Health IT industry and brings a wealth of experience that will help Alcidion deliver on our vision of becoming the ultimate health informatics company."

"I am very proud and honoured to join Alcidion said Moynihan. "Over the past decade I have had the opportunity to admire Alcidion's innovation from the sidelines. Today, I am delighted to be able to take a front seat in commercialising their outstanding technology."

This newly created position within Alcidion covers key aspects of Business Development within Alcidion and additional will assist Oncall Systems with the development and sales of Smartpage into the Australian marketplace in addition to supporting acquisitions currently under negotiation.
