

IAG appoints Robert Cutler as Group General Counsel

IAG Managing Director and CEO, Nick Hawkins has appointed Robert Cutler as the company's Group General Counsel, effective 4 April 2024.

Mr Cutler joins IAG after a 33-year career with Clayton Utz, which included six years as Chief Executive Partner and Board Member. He was also a Director of the not-for-profit Clayton Utz Foundation.

Mr Hawkins said: "I welcome the contribution that Robert will make to our Leadership Team, and IAG. In addition to his legal career, he has extensive governance experience as a member of various boards, and has advised on regulatory and risk management matters for private and public organisations."

Mr Cutler is a former Member of the Business Council of Australia's Economic Policy & Competitiveness Committee and Regulatory & Compliance Committee.

He is a member of the Law Society of NSW and a Federal Government BoardLinks Champion.

This release has been authorised by IAG's Managing Director and CEO.
