Life360 changes ASX Admission Category to Foreign Exempt Listing

Life360, Inc. (“Life360” or the “Company”) (ASX:360) has applied for and been granted a change in its admission category from a standard ASX Listing to an ASX Foreign Exempt Listing, with the change taking effect from the commencement of trading on Friday, 2 August 2024.

This change means that Life360 will primarily be regulated by its home exchange, the Nasdaq, and is exempt from complying with most of the ASX's Listing Rules.

Life360 continues to have a full listing on the Nasdaq and to be listed on the ASX. The change in admission category does not affect shareholders' ability to trade their shares on ASX, and Life360's ASX ticker code (360) will remain the same.

Authorisation

Chris Hulls, Director, Co-Founder and Chief Executive Officer of Life360 authorized this announcement being given to ASX.
