

ASX Release (ASX Code: LHM)31 March 2024

QUARTERLY ACTIVITIES REPORT – 31 MARCH 2024 QUARTER

BARRY PARADE PROJECT

During the quarter, the Company relinquished occupancy of its sales and display office to save costs whilst it contemplates the project future. The sales and display office was deemed surplus to requirements given that full marketing of apartment sales is not expected to commence in the short term.

The Company continues to contemplate the feasibility of the project with the cost of production being the major focus of these considerations. There is no clear indication when costs associated with the project will materially reduce, if at all, to the levels used in the initial economic modelling of the project.

The Company has reduced costs where it can however, a high level of fixed costs are incurred on a month-to-month basis, largely finance costs. The continued high holding costs will be central to future of the project and any decision associated with it.

As previously stated, the Barry Parade project is well placed in terms of its location and its product offering and is being positioned predominantly for the national and local market to meet the anticipated demand. The long-term economic forecast for Brisbane and SE Queensland is generally positive with established strong population inflow and projected housing stock shortages. These circumstances support the potential value of the project and the vacant site itself.

The Company is currently engaged with stakeholders to consider the future of the project with the decision to be made on its future in the current quarter. Shareholders will be informed of further updates when they occur.
