An Explanatory Memorandum accompanies this Notice of Annual General Meeting. All shareholders should read the Explanatory Memorandum carefully and in its entirety. If shareholders are in doubt as to how they should vote, they should seek advice from their professional adviser prior to voting.

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

This explanatory memorandum (Explanatory Memorandum) has been prepared to assist shareholders of the Company in their consideration of the resolutions proposed in the Notice of Annual General Meeting.

ITEM 1: Financial statements and reports

The first item of business deals with the financial statements of the Company, the directors' report and the Auditor's Report for the financial year ended 30 June 2023 (reports). These reports are contained in the Company's 2023 Annual Report sent to shareholders, if requested, and are available on the Company's web site at <http://www.objective.com/investors>.

Shareholders are to consider these reports and seek explanations, if required, from the directors when the reports are presented to the meeting. No resolution is required on these reports and they are only required to be laid at the meeting in accordance with section 317 of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (Corporations Act).

ITEM 2: Resolution 1 - Remuneration Report for the financial year ended 30 June 2023

The Remuneration Report, which forms part of the Directors' Report, is on pages 26 to 28 of the Company's 2023 Annual Report. The Remuneration Report sets out the policy for the remuneration of the directors and executives of the Company.

Section 250R(2) of the Corporations Act requires that a resolution to adopt the Remuneration Report be put to the vote of shareholders and shareholders have the opportunity to discuss the Remuneration Report at the Annual General Meeting. However, under section 250R(3) of the Corporations Act, the vote on this resolution is advisory only and is not binding on the Company or its directors.

In accordance with section 250R(4) of the Corporations Act, the Company will disregard any votes cast on this resolution by:

- a. a member of the key management personnel details of whose remuneration are included in the remuneration report; or
- b. a closely related party of such a member.

However, a member of the key management personnel may cast a vote on the resolution if the member does so as a proxy appointed by writing that specifies how the proxy is to vote on the proposed resolution and the vote is not cast on behalf of a member of key management personnel whose remuneration details are included in the remuneration report.

In accordance with section 250BD of the Corporations Act, key management personnel (other than the Chairman) and their closely related parties are prevented from voting undirected proxies on this resolution.

The Chairman will vote all undirected proxies in favour of this resolution. If you wish to vote “against” or “abstain” you should mark the relevant box in the attached proxy form.

If 25% or more of the votes that are cast are voted against the adoption of the remuneration report at two consecutive Annual General Meetings, shareholders will be required to vote at the second of those Annual General Meetings on a resolution that another meeting be held within 90 days at which all of the Company’s directors (other than the CEO) must go up for re-election.

ITEM 3: Resolution 2 – Retirement and re-election of director: Mr Darc Rasumssen

Pursuant to the Company’s Constitution and the Listing Rules one third of the directors of the Company must retire by rotation. Additionally, any director appointed by the Board since the last Annual General Meeting must retire at the next Annual General Meeting. A director who retires may offer himself or herself for re-election.

Mr Darc Rasmussen retires by rotation at the 2023 Annual General Meeting and, being eligible, offers himself for re-election.

Darc is a seasoned enterprise software professional with over 25 years’ experience successfully building and growing Software as a Service (SaaS) and Cloud based businesses across global markets. Darc spent time working and living in Europe, the USA and Asia/Pacific growing public and private companies including Infor, SAP, IntraPower (Trusted Cloud) and Integrated Research. Darc led the SAP (NYSE:SAP) global CRM Line of Business, building it from start-up to total annual revenues of US$1.5 billion in 2007, establishing SAP as the global leader in the CRM market. He was CEO at Integrated Research (ASX:IRI) and led the company through a whole of business transformation strategy that delivered 70%+ growth in Revenue and Profits along with a tripling of the company’s market capitalisation. During Darc’s tenure at IRI, Darc was named a Gartner “Cool Vendor” and became the global leader in the Unified Communications Performance Management market. Darc is a non-executive director of Gentrack Group Limited (NZX/ASX:GTK) and urbanise.com Pty Ltd (ASX:UBN).

Recommendation: The Board unanimously recommends that shareholders vote in favour of this resolution.

ITEM 4: Resolution 4 – Amendment to the Company’s Constitution

Summary

Under Section 136(2) of the Corporations Act, a company may modify or repeal its Constitution, or a provision of its Constitution, by special resolution. A special resolution requires the approval of 75% of the votes cast by the shareholders present and eligible to vote (in person, by proxy or corporate representative) in order to be passed.

Since the Constitution was first adopted, there have been a number of developments in law and the ASX Listing Rules, corporate governance principles and general corporate and commercial practice for ASX-listed entities. The proposed amendments reflect the current requirements under the Corporations Act and ASX Listing Rules.

Most of the proposed changes are administrative or relatively minor in nature. A summary of the material changes in the amended Constitution is set out below. The summary does not purport to be exhaustive or to constitute a definitive statement of the rights and liabilities of shareholders under the amended Constitution.

A copy of the Company's current Constitution showing the proposed amendments is available at: www.objective.com.au/agm-2023, and an electronic copy can be obtained by emailing: investors@objective.com.

Summary of proposed changes

Several of the proposed changes are administrative or relatively minor in nature. The principal differences are outlined below.

General Updates

The provisions of the amended Constitution have been amended to reflect changes in terminology now contained in the Corporations Act, the ASX Listing Rules and the ASX Settlement Operating Rules. Rules which are now outdated, or which restated Corporations Act or ASX Listing Rule requirements have been removed to simplify the Constitution and minimise the need for further updates in the event of any legislative or regulatory changes in the future.

Preference Shares

As is common for listed entities, the amended Constitution sets out the terms of preference shares such that shareholder approval is given to the terms of preference shares by virtue of approval of the amended Constitution (rather than by special resolution at the time the shares are issued).

Share Certificates

The current Constitution refers to outdated requirements for the issuing of shares certificates and statements by requiring the Company to issue a certificate, statement, or other document in respect of securities. The amended Constitution provides that, subject to applicable laws, the Company need not issue certificate for shares, consistent with the Corporations Act and in light of the fact that the Company is an ASX listed entity.

Transfers

Consistent with the Corporations Regulations 2001 (Cth) and the ASX Settlement Rules, the amended Constitution provides that the Company must not refuse or fail to register (or give effect to) a proper ASTC transfer (as defined in the Corporations Regulations 2001 (Cth)) of shares. Further, the amended Constitution provides that, where a director refuses a transfer, the transfer must be returned to the person who lodged the transfer if a demand is made within 12 months of the giving of the notice of refusal, unless there has been an allegation of fraud concerning the transfer.

Direct Voting

The current Constitution does not contemplate direct voting. The amended Constitution includes direct voting provisions which permit the Board to determine rules and procedures in relation to the giving of direct votes. A 'direct vote' includes a vote delivered to the Company by post, fax or other electronic means approved by the directors.

The amended Constitution also sets out further requirements for how notice of direct votes are validly given to the Company, and explains the outcome where a direct vote is given by a shareholder but the shareholder also either votes in person, provides a further direct vote, or appoints (or revokes the appointment of) a proxy, attorney or corporate representative.

Dividends

The current Constitution provides that dividends may only be paid out of profits of the Company, which reflects the former profits test under the Corporations Act, and which was amended in 2010. The amended Constitution has been amended to reflect the Corporations Act requirements for the payment of dividends.

There is now a three-tiered test that a company will need to satisfy before paying a dividend, replacing the previous test that dividends may only be paid out of profits.

The amended Corporations Act requirements provide that a company must not pay a dividend unless:

- (a) the company's assets exceed its liabilities immediately before the dividend is declared and the excess is sufficient for the payment of the dividend; and
- (b) the payment of the dividend is fair and reasonable to the company's shareholders as a whole; and
- (c) the payment of the dividend does not materially prejudice the company's ability to pay its creditors.

The current Constitution also provides that dividends may be paid either directly into an account with a bank or other financial institution or by cheque sent through the post. The amended Constitution provides that dividends will be paid directly into a nominated account, with a bank or some other financial institution.

Retirement of Directors

The current Constitution requires one third of the Board to stand for election at each annual general meeting (including any directors for whom the annual general meeting would be the third since their last appointment). The amended Constitution reflects the requirements of the ASX Listing Rules and Corporations Act with respect to the retirement and rotation of directors. The amended Constitution however does not include the requirement that one third of the directors of the Company (excluding the managing director) retire from office as a director at each annual general meeting of the Company, in order to simplify the retirement and rotation process.

Indemnity and Insurance

The current Constitution allows the Company to grant officers and directors of the Company an indemnity against liabilities incurred in that role. The indemnity does not clarify whether officers and directors must first incur an expense before enforcing the indemnity, nor does it clarify whether the indemnity continues after the person ceases to be an officer or director. It also does not clarify whether the Company can make payments to officers in respect of legal costs.

The amended Constitution clarifies the indemnity given to officers and directors by providing further detail which is consistent with market practice and aligns with the Corporations Act. Provisions have also been included that clarifies that the Company may enter into deeds of insurance and indemnity with any person who is, or has been, an officer or director of the Company. The changes also avoid the risk of the provisions of the amended Constitution overlapping or conflicting with particular terms of the deeds of indemnity.

The amended Constitution also specifies that the indemnity given in favour of officers and directors is enforceable notwithstanding that the officer or director hasn't incurred any expense or made any payment and specifies that the indemnity continues even though the person ceases to be an officer or director of the Company. The amended Constitution also specifies, in accordance with the terms of the indemnity, that the Company may make payments to officers and directors in respect of certain legal costs.

Restricted Securities

The current Constitution reflects the ASX Listing Rule requirements for restricted securities prior to amendments made to the ASX Listing Rules in 2019. The amended Constitution complies with the changes made to ASX Listing Rule 15.12 which took effect from 1 December 2019. As a result of these changes, ASX will require certain more significant holders of restricted securities and their controllers (such as related parties, promoters, substantial holders, services providers and their associates) to execute a formal escrow agreement in the form as set out in Appendix 9A to the ASX Listing Rules, as is currently the case.

For less significant holdings (such as non-related parties and non-promoters), ASX will however permit the Company to issue restriction notices to holders of restricted securities in the form of the new Appendix 9C to the ASX Listing Rules, advising them of the restriction rather than requiring signed restriction agreements.

Recommendation: The Board unanimously recommends that shareholders vote in favour of this resolution.
