

Hydrix records strong 3Q23 revenue growth, profit for Services business, and increase in Ventures valuations

Hydrix Limited ('Hydrix' or 'the Company') (ASX: HYD) today released its Appendix 4C for the quarter ended 31 March 2023 (3Q23) and provides the following Market Update.

Group Financial Highlights for the third quarter ending 31 March 2023

- 40% improvement to customer revenues of $3.5m (PCP $2.5m)
- 135% improvement to the Services cash operating profit of $0.17m (PCP loss $0.49m)
- 54% improvement to net cash used in Group operating activities of $0.93m (PCP $2.04m); and
- 27% ($1.03m) increase year-to-date in the net tangible asset value of Ventures to $4.83m.

3Q23 GROUP ACTIVITY HIGHLIGHTS AND BUSINESS UPDATES

Hydrix Services – revenue growth & improving margins are leading to profitability

- 40% improvement to customer revenues and 135% improvement to cash operating profit
- Expanded in the USA, a major potential growth market, appointing a second team member (commenced on 9 January 2023). In terms of USA progress, we advanced a new USA medtech client to a second stage development contract in January with the potential to undertake further product development stages. This is the client profile we are targeting to win in the USA
- Demonstrating Hydrix capability to deliver world first products and innovation, Memphasys (ASX: MEM) Felix System (developed by Hydrix) reported positive results from two peer reviewed globally significant journals that the system outperforms the density gradient centrifugation (DGL) method, the most globally common sperm separation method for IVF procedures. Further, in April, MEM announced its first commercial sale to the prestigious Kobe ART clinic in Japan and its first live birth using the Felix system; and
- Continued development on Cyban's 1st generation product, announcing a $1.48m contract extension on 28 February 2023.

Hydrix Medical – focus on large markets and on expanding the product portfolio

- Advanced commercial discussions to final stages with a prospective sub-distributor to commence sales into Malaysia
- Engaged a Japanese Clinical Research Organisation to develop a regulatory and reimbursement pathway to market and distribute the Guardian in Japan
- Actively engaged in discussions with several emerging cardiovascular technology companies to distribute their products in Australia and South-east Asia. Products being evaluated include medical software-as-a-service and other highly specialised products used to monitor and diagnose cardiovascular diseases; and
- Withdrawal of Guardian application to the TGA. On 27 February 2023, Hydrix advised that after application review by, and engagement with, the Australian Therapeutic Goods Administration (TGA), in the Company's view, the best path forward to reach an approval with the TGA, is to withdraw the current application and resubmit at a later date as more patient data becomes available to assist the TGA with its determination.

AngelMed Guardian: The chart below shows the population of the eight countries under exclusive distribution and the regulatory status of markets other than Australia

Hydrix Ventures – major milestones being met, leading to valuation uplifts

- On 25 January 2023, Angel Medical Systems (AngelMed) signed an agreement with a third party committing to Guaranteed Purchase Minimums of US$85.0 million over 5-years for the distribution rights in the Middle East & North Africa (MENA), a market with 150 million people
- On 10 February 2023, AngelMed closed an oversubscribed US$7.8 million Series B round priced at US$1.25 per share, as part of a US$26.0 million cross-over round, triples the size of the salesforce, expands leadership team, and extends runway to continue exploring an IPO opportunity. A gain on financial assets of A$0.37m increased the book value from A$1.48m at 31 December 2022 to A$1.85m
- On the 24 February 2023, Hydrix received equity in lieu after completing the 1st generation product for Gyder Surgical, increasing the investment in Gyder by $0.33m to approximately $1.43m
- On 19 April 2023, Gyder Surgical made an announcement that it had received regulatory approval from the Therapeutic Goods Administration (TGA) of Australia to market and sell its Gyder Hip Navigation System and for the product to be listed on the Australian Register for Therapeutic Goods (ARTG). An equity payment milestone of $0.33m has now become due and payable to Ventures, increasing the book value in Gyder to $1.76m. A further equity payment milestone will become due and payable when the product is granted US FDA approval (510K application under review by US FDA)
- Cyban reported in February that one of its clinical trials demonstrated a major breakthrough in that its non-invasive brain monitor delivers equivalent results to invasive intracranial pressure (ICP) monitoring to offer simple and safe alternative in treating critical brain injuries. Hydrix has a 5.85% investment in Cyban with a book value of $0.95m (cost basis $0.55m); and
- The Net Tangible Asset Value of Ventures at the date of this report is $4.85m taking into account Gyder Surgical's announcement in April, an increase of $1.03m (27%) since 30 June 2022.

CY2023 Group Priorities & Actions

- On 18 April 2023, the Company announced that Hydrix Services Pty Ltd entered into a $1.5m working capital facility to support revenue growth
- Scale-up Services business, grow year-on-year revenues +20% via increased international sales, marketing, and business development, and improve gross profits and billable utilisation to achieve full year profitability
- Continue market development of the Guardian in Singapore and Malaysia, and progress other large Asian markets, and expand third-party cardiovascular technology portfolio to accelerate Hydrix Medical revenues; and
- Support venture investee companies reach major milestones to increase valuations.

Hydrix Executive Chairman, Gavin Coote, commented:

"We continue to capitalise on opportunities created across the Group, and it is pleasing to see positive business momentum.

"Services is tracking a return to full year profitability reflecting increases in billable utilisation and improved pricing structures implemented during the past couple years.

"In regard to the decision to withdraw the Guardian TGA application, it is disappointing for Australian patients given it is an US FDA-approved device and being prescribed in the USA. We are advancing market development and regulatory applications in large markets outside Australia including Japan, Malaysia, Singapore, and Hong Kong.

"We look forward to updating investors in the near term in regard to additional distribution arrangements for market ready, disruptive cardiovascular products.

"The Ventures portfolio is on track to deliver meaningful equity gains this year as investee companies achieve important inflection points driving up their valuations.

"We were pleased to secure the $1.5 million working capital facility in April to support Services revenue growth that is underpinning profitability."
