The Company expects that it will continue to have negative operating cash flows in the short term. Negative net operating cash flows have significantly decreased.

The Board and management carefully monitor the Company's cash flow and are satisfied that additional short-term funding will be secured to continue to fund operating activities. The Board is currently considering various funding options and will update the market accordingly.

The Company confirms that it is in compliance with Listing Rule 3.1 and that there is no further information that should be given to ASX about its financial condition in accordance with that rule.

Compliance statement

Notes

1. The quarterly report provides a basis for informing the market how the entity's activities have been financed for the past quarter and the effect on its cash position. An entity that wishes to disclose additional information is encouraged to do so, in a note or notes included in or attached to this report.
2. If this quarterly report has been prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards, the definitions in, and provisions of, AASB 107: Statement of Cash Flows apply to this report. If this quarterly report has been prepared in accordance with other accounting standards agreed by ASX pursuant to Listing Rule 19.11A, the corresponding equivalent standard applies to this report.
3. Dividends received may be classified either as cash flows from operating activities or cash flows from investing activities, depending on the accounting policy of the entity.
