Dear Jon

MMG Limited — Request for suspension of securities from official quotation under Listing Rule 17.2

MMG Limited (ASX: MMG) (MMG) refers to its announcement dated 1 November 2019 that the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) agreed to MMG's request for MMG to be removed from the official list of ASX pursuant to ASX Listing Rule 17.11 (Announcement).

MMG requests the suspension from official quotation of MMG's CHESSE Depository Interests (CDIs), effective from the close of trading on Monday, 2 December 2019 (Suspension), in accordance with the delisting timetable contained in the Announcement.

MMG provides the following information in accordance with Listing Rule 17.2:

- 1 MMG requests the Suspension to enable the settlement of any CDI trades before MMG is officially delisted from ASX.
- 2 MMG requests the Suspension for a period of two business days (from close of trading on Monday, 2 December 2019 until close of trading on Wednesday, 4 December 2019), at which point MMG expects to be removed from the official list of ASX.
- 3 MMG expects to make a formal request to ASX for removal from the official list on Tuesday, 3 December 2019 specifying close of trading on Wednesday, 4 December 2019 as the date for delisting to take effect.
- 1 MMG is not aware of any reason why the CDIs should not be suspended.
- 2 MMG is not aware of any other information necessary to inform the market about the Suspension.

Yours sincerely

Geoffrey (Xiaoyu) Gao
Chief Executive Officer
