The entitlement of shareholders to vote at the AGM will be determined by reference to that time.

All voting to be by way of a poll

Voting on all resolutions will occur by way of poll. The online platform will enable shareholders to lodge a vote in real time.

Voting Exclusions

One or both of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (Corporations Act) and the ASX Listing Rules require that certain persons must not vote, and the Company must disregard any votes cast by certain persons, on certain of the resolutions to be considered at the AGM. These voting exclusions are described below.

The following persons may not vote, and the Company will disregard any votes cast by or on behalf of the following persons, on the resolution proposed in item 3 (Resolution 3):

- any person who is a KMP as at the time Resolution 3 is voted on at the AGM, and any closely related party of such a KMP, to the extent in either case that they are acting as a proxy, unless the person votes as a proxy for someone who is entitled to vote and:

- the person is appointed as a proxy by writing that specifies how the proxy is to vote on Resolution 3; or
- the person is the Chairman of the AGM and the proxy appointment expressly authorises the Chairman to exercise the proxy even if Resolution 3 is connected directly or indirectly with the remuneration of a KMP.

Defined terms used in the voting exclusions

For the purposes of the above voting exclusions:

- The "key management personnel for the IDP Education consolidated group" (or KMPs) are those persons having authority and responsibility for planning, directing and controlling the activities of the IDP Education consolidated group either directly or indirectly. It includes all Directors (Executive and Non-Executive). The KMPs during the year ended 30 June 2020 are listed in the Remuneration Report contained in the Directors' Report for the year ended 30 June 2020.
- A "closely related party" of a KMP means:
 - a spouse or child of the KMP; or
 - a child of the KMP's spouse; or

Application of voting exclusions to attorneys

The Company will also apply these voting exclusions to persons appointed as attorney by a shareholder to attend and vote at the AGM under a power of attorney, as if they were appointed as a proxy.

Information on Proxies, Corporate Representatives and Attorneys

Voting by Proxy

Please note the following in relation to voting by proxy:

- A shareholder of the Company entitled to attend and vote at the AGM is entitled to appoint a proxy. A proxy may be either an individual or a corporation and need not be a shareholder of the Company.
- A shareholder who is entitled to cast two or more votes may appoint not more than two proxies. If you appoint two proxies, each will require a separate form.
- An instrument of proxy in which the name of the appointee is not filled in is taken to be given in favour of the Chairman of the AGM.
- A single proxy exercises all voting rights of the relevant shareholder.
- Where two proxies are appointed, the shareholder may specify the proportion or number of that shareholder's votes that each proxy is appointed to exercise. If a shareholder appoints two proxies and does not specify each proxy's voting rights, the rights are deemed to be 50% each. Fractions of votes are to be disregarded.

- A proxy need not vote in that capacity, unless the proxy is the Chairman of the AGM. However, if the proxy's appointment specifies the way to vote on a resolution, and the proxy decides to vote in that capacity on that resolution, the proxy must vote the way specified (subject to the other provisions of these Notes, including the voting exclusions noted above).
- If a proxy does not attend the AGM, then the Chairman of the AGM will be taken to have been appointed as the proxy of the relevant shareholder in respect of the AGM.
- If the Chairman of the AGM is appointed, or taken to be appointed, as a proxy, but the appointment does not specify the way to vote on a resolution, then the Chairman intends to exercise the relevant shareholder's votes in favour of the relevant resolution (subject to the other provisions of these Notes, including the voting exclusions noted above).
- A voting form, which enables you to appoint a proxy, accompanies this Notice of Meeting.

Voting by Corporate Representatives

A shareholder, or proxy, that is a corporation and entitled to attend and vote at the AGM may appoint an individual to act as its corporate representative. Evidence of the appointment of a corporate representative must be in accordance with the Corporations Act and must be lodged with the Company at least 48 hours prior to the AGM.

Voting by Attorney

A shareholder entitled to attend and vote at the AGM is entitled to appoint an attorney to attend and vote at the AGM on the shareholder's behalf. An attorney need not be a shareholder of the Company.

The power of attorney appointing the attorney must be duly executed and specify the name of each of the shareholder, the Company and the attorney, and also specify the meetings at which the appointment may be used. The appointment may be a standing one.

To be effective, the power of attorney must also be returned in the same manner, and by the same time, as outlined above for voting forms.

Evidence of execution

If any instrument (including a voting form or appointment of corporate representative) returned to the Company is completed by an individual or a corporation under power of attorney, the power of attorney under which the instrument is signed, or a certified copy of that power of attorney, must accompany the instrument unless the power of attorney has previously been noted by the Company or the Company's share registry.

The Directors' Report for the year ended 30 June 2020 contains the Remuneration Report, which is set out on pages 27 to 44 of the 2020 Annual Report. A copy of the 2020 Annual Report can be found on the IDP Education website at <https://investors.idp.com/Investor-Centre/> or by contacting the Company's share registrar, Link Market Services.
