

Incorrect and Misleading Article by the Australian Financial Review

Melbourne 24th August 2020 : iSignthis Ltd (the "Company") has been made aware of a misleading article published in today's Australian Financial Review.

The article was authored by gossip blogger, Mr Joe Aston, and referred to a company that is not a customer of iSignthis, and with which iSignthis has not ever had a relationship.

The iSignthis customer referred to in the recent statement of claim at paragraph 73 in our Federal Court case VID1315/2019¹ against the ASXL Ltd is a different company, with a different website address, and is a licensed crypto exchange under the EU regulatory regime.

The company referred to in Aston's blog is a Vanuatu FX or CFD dealer, and has no relationship to iSignthis or the iSignthis customer, which is an Estonian exchange.

Mr Aston has again not fact checked his article / blog with the Company.

The Company will be contacting the publisher today.
