Filing of Notice of Appearance

Kidman Resources Limited (ASX: KDR) advises that it has not yet been formally served with a Writ of Summons by Marindi Metals Limited (ASK: MZN) despite the announcements by MZN last week that it was commencing legal proceedings.

The Company further advises that it has today entered a notice of appearance in the proceedings commenced by MZN in the Western Australian Supreme Court even though MZN has not validly served the Writ of Summons. MZN now has 14 days to provide further details of its claim to the Company. The Company has taken this unusual step in order to avoid further delays and to bring certainty to the situation as soon as possible.

The Company remains of the view that MZN's actions have been opportunistic, and it intends to vigorously defend any claims by MZN. In the interim, the Company remains focused on rapidly progressing activities at its Earl Grey Project.

The Company will keep the market updated.
