Dear Sir/Madam

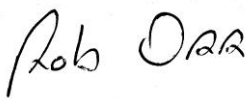

Consecutive Trading halt request

In accordance with Listing Rule 17.1 Corazon Mining Limited (Corazon or Company) (ASX: CZN) hereby requests that two consecutive trading halts of its securities be granted by ASX effective immediately, pending an announcement regarding a capital raising. The requested consecutive trading halts will allow the Company time for considering, planning and executing the capital raising.

Corazon requests the consecutive trading halts from receipt of the request until the release of the announcement. It is anticipated that this announcement will be made no later than the commencement of trading on 1 July 2020.

Corazon is not aware of any reason why the consecutive trading halts should not be granted or any other information necessary to inform the market about the consecutive trading halts.

Please feel free to contact me should you have any queries in relation to this request.
