

Appendix 2A

Application for quotation of +securities

Information or documents not available now must be given to ASX as soon as available. Information and documents given to ASX become ASX's property and may be made public.

If you are an entity incorporated outside Australia and you are seeking quotation of a new class of +securities other than CDIs, you will need to obtain and provide an International Securities Identification Number (ISIN) for that class. Further information on the requirement for the notification of an ISIN is available from the Create Online Forms page. ASX is unable to create the new ISIN for non-Australian issuers.

*Denotes minimum information required for first lodgement of this form, with exceptions provided in specific notes for certain questions. The balance of the information, where applicable, must be provided as soon as reasonably practicable by the entity.

ADVANCED SHARE REGISTRY LTD
EMPLOYEE PERFORMANCE RIGHTS AND SHARE PLAN

Summary of the Plan

The Employee Performance Rights and Share Plan (“the Plan”) provides an opportunity for all employees who meet the requirements of the Plan to obtain shares in Advanced Share Registry Ltd (“Advanced”).

The Plan does not issue shares or options directly but issues a “Performance Right” that automatically converts to a share provided that the conditions of the Performance Right have been met and the employee exercises the Performance Right.

To qualify for a Performance Right, an employee must have been employed for at least 12 months by Advanced, although the Plan rules allow the Board to waive this requirement at its discretion. The employee must also have met KPI and performance conditions as determined by the Board.

The Board will identify those employees who meet the qualification criteria and make an offer to those employees to take up the Performance Rights. The letter of offer will outline the conditions attached to the offer, and may contain such things as a “service period” (such as remaining employed by Advanced for number of years from the date of the offer), and KPIs and other performance criteria to be met during the service period.

The Performance Rights only provide the right for the employee to be issued shares in accordance with the offer and does not entitle the employee to any other rights nor imposes any other obligations on Advanced. The Performance Rights are issued to an employee personally and cannot be traded or otherwise transferred to any other person or entity.

Where the conditions of the Performance Rights are met, or the Board determines that the Performance Rights have vested, the employee may exercise the Performance Right within 3 months of the vesting date at which time Advanced will issue the shares described in the offer to the employee. The shares issued will vest immediately in the employee and will not be subject to any period of restricted trade other than the usual restriction on trading during “black out” periods.

Where the conditions of the Performance Rights are not met, including where an employee is no longer employed by Advanced, the Performance Rights lapse and will not be converted to shares.
