1.2 Important Notes

This Prospectus is dated 17 April 2024 and was lodged with the ASIC on that date. The ASIC, the ASX and their respective officers take no responsibility for the contents of this Prospectus or the merits of the investment to which this Prospectus relates.

No Securities may be issued on the basis of this Prospectus later than 13 months after the date of this Prospectus.

Applications for Securities offered pursuant to this Prospectus can only be submitted on an original Application Form which accompanies this Prospectus.

This Prospectus is a transaction specific prospectus for an offer of continuously quoted securities (as defined in the Corporations Act) and has been prepared in accordance with section 713 of the Corporations Act. It does not contain the same level of disclosure as an initial public offering prospectus. In making representations in this Prospectus regard has been had to the fact that the Company is a disclosing entity for the purposes of the Corporations Act and certain matters may reasonably be expected to be known to investors and professional advisers whom potential investors may consult.

1.3 ASIC Instrument and ASX Listing Rule 7.2, Exception 5

In certain circumstances, a listed company may undertake a share purchase plan in accordance with ASIC Corporations (Share and Interest Purchase Plans) Instrument 2019/547 (ASIC Instrument). The ASIC Instrument allows a share purchase plan to be conducted without the use of a prospectus once in any consecutive 12-month period.

The Company is unable to wholly rely on the relief granted by the ASIC Instrument in respect of the SPP on the basis that the Company is also proposing to issue free-attaching Options to Eligible Shareholders. The relief granted by the ASIC Instrument does not cover the issue of Options, which the Company must instead offer pursuant to this Prospectus. As a result, the Board has determined to offer all Securities under this Prospectus to allow Eligible Shareholders to apply for both Securities at the same time.

Broadly speaking, and subject to a number of exceptions, Listing Rule 7.1 limits the amount of equity securities that a listed company can issue without the approval of its shareholders over any 12 month period to 15% of the fully paid ordinary shares it had on issue at the start of that period. The issue of:

- (a) Shares under the SPP is being made in reliance on exception 5 of ASX Listing Rule 7.2, as such, it will not take up any of the Company's placement capacity under ASX Listing Rule 7.1; and
- (b) Options under the SPP cannot be made in reliance of exception 5 of ASX Listing Rule 7.2, as such, will take up a portion, subject to how many Shares are subscribed for under the SPP, of the Company's placement capacity under ASX Listing Rule 7.1.

1.4 Risk factors

Potential investors should be aware that subscribing for Securities in the Company involves a number of risks. The key risk factors of which investors should be aware are set out in Section 6 of this Prospectus. These risks together with other general risks applicable to all investments in listed securities not specifically referred to, may affect the value of the Securities in the future. Accordingly, an investment in the Company should be considered highly speculative. Investors should consider consulting their professional advisers before deciding whether to apply for Securities pursuant to this Prospectus.

1.5 Taxation implications

The Directors do not consider it appropriate to give Shareholder's advice regarding the taxation consequences of applying for Securities under this Prospectus. The Company, its advisers and its officers do not accept any responsibility or liability for any such taxation consequences to Shareholders. As a result, Shareholders should consult their professional tax adviser in connection with applying for Securities under this Prospectus.

1.6 Overseas Investors

The distribution of this Prospectus in jurisdictions outside Australia or New Zealand may be restricted by law and therefore persons into whose possession this document comes should seek advice on and observe any such restrictions. Any failure to comply with these restrictions constitutes a violation of those laws. This Prospectus does not constitute an offer of Securities in any jurisdiction where, or to any person to whom, it would be unlawful to issue in this Prospectus.

1.7 Forward-looking statements

This Prospectus contains forward-looking statements which are identified by words such as 'may', 'could', 'believes', 'estimates', 'targets', 'expects', or 'intends' and other similar words that involve risks and uncertainties.

These statements are based on an assessment of present economic and operating conditions, and on a number of assumptions regarding future events and actions that, as at the date of this Prospectus, are expected to take place.

Such forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties, assumptions and other important factors, many of which are beyond the control of the Company, the Directors and our management.

The Company cannot and does not give any assurance that the results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements contained in this prospectus will actually occur and investors are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements.

The Company has no intention to update or revise forward-looking statements, or to publish prospective financial information in the future, regardless of whether new information, future events or any other factors affect the information contained in this prospectus, except where required by law.

These forward-looking statements are subject to various risk factors that could cause our actual results to differ materially from the results expressed or anticipated in these statements. These risk factors are set out in Section 6.

This Prospectus does not provide investment advice and has been prepared without taking account of your financial objectives, financial situation or particular needs (including financial or taxation issues). You should seek professional investment advice before subscribing for securities under this Prospectus.

The Company intends to apply the funds raised under the SPP as set out in Section 4.2.

3. DETAILS OF THE OFFER

You cannot withdraw your Application once it has been received.

The purpose of the Offer is set out in Section 4.1. The Offer is non-renounceable, meaning that Eligible Shareholders may not transfer their rights to any Securities offered under the Offer.

3.2 Eligibility to participate in Offer

Only Eligible Shareholders may participate in the Offer. 'Eligible Shareholders' for the purpose of the Offer are Shareholders:

- (a) who were registered holders of Shares on the Record Date; and
- (b) whose registered address is in Australia, New Zealand, Germany, Singapore or Switzerland (Permitted Jurisdictions).

If you are the only registered Shareholder of a holding of Shares, but you receive more than one Offer (for example because you hold Shares in more than one capacity), you may only apply for one parcel of Shares with a value of up to $30,000. The Company reserves the right to reject any application for Securities under this Prospectus to the extent it considers that the application (whether alone or in conjunction with other applications) does not comply with these requirements.

In the event of oversubscriptions by the Closing Date, the Directors may, in their absolute discretion, scale-back applications on an equitable basis. Directors may also, in their absolute discretion, decide to increase acceptances in the event of oversubscriptions. Participation in the Offer is optional and is subject to the terms and conditions set out in this Prospectus.

3.3 Custodians, trustees and nominees

If you are an Eligible Shareholder and hold Shares as a custodian (as defined in ASIC Corporations (Share and Interest Purchase Plans) Instrument 2019/547 (ASIC CI 2019/547) (refer below) (Custodian) or in any more specific ASIC relief granted to the Company in relation to the SPP), you may apply for up to $30,000 worth of new Shares for each beneficiary for whom you act as custodian provided you complete and submit, together with an Application Form, a certificate (Custodian Certificate) with the following information:

- (a) that you held Shares on behalf of:
 - (i) one or more other persons that are not custodians; and/or
 - (ii) another custodian (Downstream Custodian) that holds beneficial interests in Shares on behalf of one or more other persons who are resident in Australia, New Zealand or Singapore, to which those beneficial interests relate,

(each a Participating Beneficiary) at the Record Date who have subsequently instructed you, and/or the Downstream Custodian, to apply for Shares under the SPP on their behalf;
- (b) the number of Participating Beneficiaries and their names and addresses;
- (c) the number of Shares that you hold on behalf of each Participating Beneficiary;
- (d) the number or dollar amount of Shares that each Participating Beneficiary has instructed you, either directly or indirectly through a Downstream Custodian, to apply for on their behalf;
- (e) that the application price for Shares applied under the Offer for each Participating Beneficiary for whom you act in addition to the application price for any other Shares issued to you as custodian (as a result of instruction given to you as Custodian or a Downstream Custodian) for that Participating Beneficiary under any arrangement similar to the SPP in the prior 12 months does not exceed $30,000;
- (f) that a copy of the Prospectus was given to each Participating Beneficiary; and
- (g) where you hold Shares on behalf of a Participating Beneficiary indirectly, through one or more Downstream Custodians, the name and address of each Downstream Custodian.

For the purposes of ASIC CI 2019/547 you are a 'Custodian' if you provide a custodial or depository service in relation to shares of a body or interests in a registered scheme and you:

- (a) hold an Australian financial services licence covering the provision of a custodial or depository service;
- (b) are exempt from the requirement to hold an Australian financial services licence covering the provision of a custodial or depository service;
- (c) hold an Australian financial services licence covering the operation of an IDPS or is a responsible entity of an IDPS-like scheme;

If you hold Shares as a trustee or nominee for another person or persons but are not a Custodian as defined above, you cannot participate for beneficiaries in the manner described above. In this case, the rules for multiple single holdings (above) apply.

Custodians should request a Custodian Certificate when making an application on behalf of Participating Beneficiaries. To request a Custodian Certificate and if you would like further information on how to apply, you should contact the Company's share registry at any time from 8.30am to 5.00pm (WST) Monday to Friday during the Offer period.

The Company reserves the right to reject any application to the extent it considers that the application (whether alone or in conjunction with other applications) does not comply with these requirements.

The fact that ASX may grant Official Quotation to the Shares is not to be taken in any way as an indication of the merits of the Company or the Shares now offered.

Options

The Company will not apply for quotation of the Options.

3.10 Restrictions on the distribution of the Prospectus

The Offer does not, and is not intended to, constitute an offer in any place or jurisdiction in which, or to any person to whom, it would not be lawful to make such an offer or to issue this Prospectus. The Offer is not being extended and Securities will not be issued to investors with a registered address that is outside the Permitted Jurisdictions. This Prospectus does not constitute an offer to sell, or a solicitation of an offer to buy, securities in any other jurisdiction. In particular, any securities described in this Prospectus have not been, and will not be, registered under the US Securities Act of 1933 (as amended) and may not be offered or sold in the United States except in transactions exempt from, or not subject to, registration under the US Securities Act and applicable US state securities laws.

The return of a duly completed Application Form will be taken to constitute a representation and warranty that the Applicant has a registered address in a Permitted Jurisdiction.

New Zealand

This offer to New Zealand investors is a regulated offer made under Australian and New Zealand law. In Australia, this is Chapter 8 of the Corporations Act 2001 (Aust) and regulations made under that Act. In New Zealand, this is subpart 6 of Part 9 of the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013 and Part 9 of the Financial Markets Conduct Regulations 2014.

This offer and the content of the offer document are principally governed by Australian rather than New Zealand law. In the main, the Corporations Act 2001 (Aust) and the regulations made under that Act set out how the offer must be made.

There are differences in how financial products are regulated under Australian law. For example, the disclosure of fees for managed investment schemes is different under the Australian regime.

The rights, remedies, and compensation arrangements available to New Zealand investors in Australian financial products may differ from the rights, remedies, and compensation arrangements for New Zealand financial products.

Both the Australian and New Zealand financial markets regulators have enforcement responsibilities in relation to this offer. If you need to make a complaint about this offer, please contact the Financial Markets Authority, New Zealand (<http://www.fma.govt.nz>). The Australian and New Zealand regulators will work together to settle your complaint.

The taxation treatment of Australian financial products is not the same as for New Zealand financial products.

If you are uncertain about whether this investment is appropriate for you, you should seek the advice of an appropriately qualified financial adviser.

The offer may involve a currency exchange risk. The currency for the financial products is not New Zealand dollars. The value of the financial products will go up or down according to changes in the exchange rate between that currency and New Zealand dollars. These changes may be significant.

If you expect the financial products to pay any amounts in a currency that is not New Zealand dollars, you may incur significant fees in having the funds credited to a bank account in New Zealand in New Zealand dollars.

If the financial products are able to be traded on a financial product market and you wish to trade the financial products through that market, you will have to make arrangements for a participant in that market to sell the financial products on your behalf. If the financial product market does not operate in New Zealand, the way in which the market operates, the regulation of participants in that market, and the information available to you about the financial products and trading may differ from financial product markets that operate in New Zealand.

Germany

This document has not been, and will not be, registered with or approved by any securities regulator in Germany or elsewhere in the European Union. Accordingly, this document may not be made available, nor may the new Securities be offered for sale, in Germany except in circumstances that do not require a prospectus under Article 1(4) of Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 of the European Parliament and the Council of the European Union (the "Prospectus Regulation").

In accordance with Article 1(4) of the Prospectus Regulation, an offer of New Shares and Options in Germany is limited:

- (a) to persons who are "qualified investors" (as defined in Article 2(e) of the Prospectus Regulation);

- (b) to fewer than 150 natural or legal persons (other than qualified investors); or
- (c) in any other circumstance falling within Article 1(4) of the Prospectus Regulation.

Singapore

This document and any other materials relating to the Securities have not been, and will not be, lodged or registered as a prospectus in Singapore with the Monetary Authority of Singapore. Accordingly, this document and any other document relating to the Securities may not be issued, circulated or distributed, nor may the Securities be offered or sold, or be made the subject of an invitation for subscription or purchase, whether directly or indirectly, to persons in Singapore except pursuant to and in accordance with exemptions in Subdivision (4) Division 1, Part 13 of the Securities and Futures Act 2001 of Singapore (the SFA), or as otherwise pursuant to, and in accordance with the conditions of any other applicable provisions of the SFA.

This document has been given to you on the basis that you are an existing holder of the Company's shares. If you are not such a shareholder, please return this document immediately. You may not forward or circulate this document to any other person in Singapore.

Any offer is not made to you with a view to the Securities being subsequently offered for sale to any other party. There are on-sale restrictions in Singapore that may be applicable to investors who acquire Securities. As such, investors are advised to acquaint themselves with the SFA provisions relating to resale restrictions in Singapore and comply accordingly.

Switzerland

The Securities may not be publicly offered in Switzerland and will not be listed on the SIX Swiss Exchange or on any other stock exchange or regulated trading facility in Switzerland. Neither this document nor any other offering or marketing material relating to the Securities constitutes a prospectus or a similar notice as such terms are understood pursuant to art. 35 of the Swiss Financial Services Act (FinSA) or the listing rules of any stock exchange or regulated trading facility in Switzerland. Neither this document nor any other offering or marketing material relating to the Securities or the offering may be publicly distributed or otherwise made publicly available in Switzerland.

Neither this document nor any other offering or marketing material relating to the offering, the Company or the Securities have been or will be filed with or approved by any Swiss regulatory authority or authorized review body. In particular, this document will not be filed with, and the offer of Securities will not be supervised by, the Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority (FINMA).

This document may be distributed in Switzerland only to existing shareholders of the Company and is not for general circulation in Switzerland.

The above table is a statement of current intentions as of the date of this Prospectus. As with any budget, intervening events and new circumstances have the potential to affect the manner in which the funds are ultimately applied. The Board reserves the right to alter the way funds are applied on this basis. The amounts and timing of the actual expenditures and investments may vary significantly and will depend on numerous factors including the efficiency of government departments, efficiency of lead contractors, access agreements and any changes in the business and economic environment.

On the basis that the Offer is fully subscribed, the funds raised are forecast to cover the expenses of the Offer and operational/working capital expenditure expenses to 20 June 2024, at which point additional funding through debt/equity will need to be raised to meet forecasted expenditure plans for the Company's projects. 3. No existing performance rights are vested or exercised.
4. does not include any adjustments for the "Use of Funds" as described under Clause 4.2 of this document.

5. RIGHTS AND LIABILITIES ATTACHING TO SECURITIES

5.1 Shares

The following is a summary of the more significant rights and liabilities attaching to the Shares being offered pursuant to this Prospectus. This summary is not exhaustive and does not constitute a definitive statement of the rights and liabilities of Shareholders. To obtain such a statement, persons should seek independent legal advice.

Full details of the rights and liabilities attaching to Shares are set out in the Constitution, a copy of which is available for inspection at the Company's registered office during normal business hours.

Shareholders are entitled to be present in person, or by proxy, attorney or representative to attend and vote at general meetings of the Company.

Shareholders may requisition meetings in accordance with section 249D of the Corporations Act and the Constitution of the Company.

(b) Voting rights

Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares, at general meetings of shareholders or classes of shareholders:

- (i) each Shareholder entitled to vote may vote in person or by proxy, attorney or representative;
- (ii) on a show of hands, every person present who is a Shareholder or a proxy, attorney or representative of a Shareholder has one vote; and
- (iii) on a poll, every person present who is a Shareholder or a proxy, attorney or representative of a Shareholder shall, in respect of each fully paid Share held by him, or in respect of which he is appointed a proxy, attorney or representative, have one vote for each Share held, but in respect of partly paid shares shall have such number of votes as bears the same proportion to the total of such Shares registered in the Shareholder's name as the amount paid (not credited) bears to the total amounts paid and payable (excluding amounts credited).

(c) Dividend rights

Subject to the rights of any preference Shareholders and to the rights of the holders of any shares created or raised under any special arrangement as to dividend, the Directors may from time to time declare a dividend to be paid to the Shareholders entitled to the dividend which shall be payable on all Shares according to the proportion that the amount paid (not credited) is of the total amounts paid and payable (excluding amounts credited) in respect of such Shares.

The Directors may from time to time pay to the Shareholders any interim dividends as they may determine. No dividend shall carry interest as against the Company. The Directors may set aside out of the profits of the Company any amounts that they may determine as reserves, to be applied at the discretion of the Directors, for any purpose for which the profits of the Company may be properly applied.

Subject to the ASX Listing Rules and the Corporations Act, the Company may, by resolution of the Directors, implement a dividend reinvestment plan on such terms and conditions as the Directors think fit and which provides for any dividend which the Directors may declare from time to time payable on Shares which are participating Shares in the dividend reinvestment plan, less any amount which the Company shall either pursuant to the Constitution or any law be entitled or obliged to retain, be applied by the Company to the payment of the subscription price of Shares.

(d) Winding-up

If the Company is wound up, the liquidator may, with the authority of a special resolution, divide among the Shareholders in kind the whole or any part of the property of the Company, and may for that purpose set such value as he considers fair upon any property to be so divided, and may determine how the division is to be carried out as between the Shareholders or different classes of Shareholders.

The liquidator may, with the authority of a special resolution, vest the whole or any part of any such property in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of the contributories as the liquidator thinks fit, but so that no Shareholder is compelled to accept any shares or other securities in respect of which there is any liability.

(e) Shareholder liability

As the Shares issued will be fully paid shares, they will not be subject to any calls for money by the Directors and will therefore not become liable for forfeiture.

(f) Transfer of shares

Generally, shares in the Company are freely transferable, subject to formal requirements, the registration of the transfer not resulting in a contravention of or failure to observe the provisions of a law of Australia and the transfer not being in breach of the Corporations Act and the ASX Listing Rules.

(g) Future increase in capital

The issue of any new Shares is under the control of the Directors of the Company. Subject to restrictions on the issue or grant of securities contained in the ASX Listing Rules, the Constitution and the Corporations Act (and without affecting any special right previously conferred on the holder of an existing share or class of shares), the Directors may issue Shares as they shall, in their absolute discretion, determine.

(h) Variation of rights

Under section 246B of the Corporations Act, the Company may, with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a meeting of Shareholders vary or abrogate the rights attaching to Shares.

If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class), whether or not the Company is being wound up, may be varied or abrogated with the consent in writing of the holders of three quarters of the issued shares of that class, or if authorised by a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of the shares of that class.

(i) Alteration of constitution

In accordance with the Corporations Act, the Constitution can only be amended by a special resolution passed by at least three quarters of Shareholders present and voting at the general meeting. In addition, at least 28 days written notice specifying the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution must be given.

5.2 Options

The Company does not intend to apply for quotation of the Options on ASX.

(m) Transferability

The Options are transferable subject to any restriction or escrow arrangements imposed by ASX or under applicable Australian securities laws.

6. RISK FACTORS

6.1 Introduction

The Securities offered under this Prospectus are considered highly speculative. An investment in the Company is not risk free and the Directors strongly recommend potential investors to consider the risk factors described below, together with information contained elsewhere in this Prospectus and to consult their professional advisers before deciding whether to apply for Securities pursuant to this Prospectus.

There are specific risks which relate directly to the Company's business. In addition, there are other general risks, many of which are largely beyond the control of the Company and the Directors. The risks identified in this Section, or other risk factors, may have a material impact on the financial performance of the Company and the market price of the Shares.

The following is not intended to be an exhaustive list of the risk factors to which the Company is exposed.

6.2 Company specific

Risk Category	Risk
Potential for dilution	Upon implementation of the Offer, assuming all Entitlements are accepted and no Performance Rights converted, the number of Shares in the Company will increase from 1,653,325,887 currently on issue to 1,730,248,964 (assuming no Options offered under the Offer are immediately exercised). This means that immediately after the Offer each Share will represent a lower proportion of the ownership of the Company. It is not possible to predict what the value of the Company or a Share will be following the completion of the Offer being implemented and the Directors do not make any representation as to such matters. The last trading price of Shares on ASX on the last day that the Company's shares traded on the ASX prior to the date of this Prospectus being lodged of $0.068 is not a reliable indicator as to the potential trading price of Shares after implementation of the Offer.
Operational risks	The Company will be exposed to various construction and operational risks should it advance its projects through the construction phase and into operations, including unanticipated financial, operational or political events, cost overruns, changes in the prices and demand of commodities relevant to the Company's business, equipment and labour shortages, equipment failure, technical concerns including possible reserves and deliverability difficulties, environmental impacts, increases in operating cost structures, community or industrial actions, natural disasters, interruptions to the supply of power, water, chemicals or fuel, or other circumstances which may result in the delay, suspension or termination of the project, the total or partial loss of the investment and a material adverse effect on the Company's results of operations and financial condition. In addition, construction, commissioning and operational ramp up of operational assets can be subject to unexpected problems or delays in schedule.
Processing risks	Should the Company be successful in its development and operation of its projects, the Company's operations will be

Risk Category	Risk
	subject the operating risks, including the related risks associated with storage and transportation of materials, products and wastes. These operating risks have the potential to cause personal injury, property damage or environmental contamination, and may result in the shutdown of affected facilities, business interruption, or the imposition of civil or criminal penalties, which may impact the Company's standing in the public eye. There are potential hazards associated with the Company's proposed processing operations and the related storage and transportation of products and wastes. Examples of such hazards that may arise from the Company's proposed operations could include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) pipeline and storage tank leaks and ruptures; (b) explosions and fires; (c) mechanical failures; and (d) chemical spills and other discharges or releases of toxic or hazardous substances or gases. These hazards may cause personal injury and loss of life, damage to property or contamination of the environment, which may result in suspension of operations or the imposition of civil or criminal penalties, including fines, expenses for remediation or claims by governmental entities or third parties. Although the Company maintains various insurance type and amounts that it believes is customary for its business activities, the Company may not fully insure against all potential hazards incidental to its operations.
Supply chain	The Company may be dependent on contractors and suppliers to supply vital goods and services to its operations, should operations commence. The Company may therefore be exposed to the possibility of adverse developments in the business environments of its contractors and suppliers. Any disruption to services or supplies may have an adverse effect on the financial performance of the Company.
Failure to scale up and commercialise	There is a risk that the Company will be unable to achieve sufficient scale in the commercialisation of its products across all target customer segments, which could potentially result in reduced or negative growth. There is also a risk that the Company's products launched and developed to the market may be unprofitable because they are not supported by sufficient market interest or otherwise not adequately marketed and fail to sell. There is also a risk that the products waste operating costs or incur operating costs earlier than necessary or greater than forecast. In relation to the CERENERGY battery project, the product has not been produced at scale, at designed product size and at commercial quantities. There is a risk that the product may fail to be commercialised due to the risk involved with scaling up and scaling up to the designed size. In relation to the Silumina Andes battery materials project, the product has not been produced or tested at scale and at commercial quantities. There is a risk that the product may fail to be commercialised due to the risk involved with scaling up and being commercially tested by potential customers.
Market demand and price risks	If the Company progresses to become a producer and seller of its products, the Company's business will rely primarily on the production and sale of its products to a variety of buyers.

Risk Category	Risk
	Fluctuations in the global market may materially affect the future financial performance of the Company. Demand for, and pricing of, the Company's products may be sensitive to external economic and political factors, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) worldwide supply and demand; (b) the level of economic activity in the markets the Company may serve; (c) the price and availability of new technology; and (d) the availability and cost of potential substitutes. It is impossible to predict future price movements with certainty. Any sustained low prices or further declines in the price may adversely affect the Company's proposed business, results of operations or its ability to finance the development of its projects.
Access to capital risk	The Company's business and, in particular, its development of a large-scale projects, relies on access to debt and equity financing. There is a risk that the Company may not be able to access capital from these markets, which would impact the ability to develop its projects and achieve its business objectives. Further, the Company, in the ordinary course of its operations and developments, is required to issue financial assurances, particularly insurances and bond/bank guarantee instruments to secure statutory and environmental performance undertakings and commercial arrangements. The Company's ability to provide such assurances is subject to external financial and credit market assessments, and its own financial position. Loan agreements and other financing rearrangements such as debt facilities, convertible note issue and finance leases (and any related guarantee and security) that may be entered into by the Company may contain covenants, undertakings and other provisions which, if breached, may entitle lenders to accelerate repayment of loans and there is no assurance that the Company would be able to repay such loans in the event of an acceleration. Enforcement of any security granted by the Company or default under a finance lease could also result in the loss of assets. The Company is exposed to risks associated with its financial instruments (consisting of cash, receivables, accounts payable and accrued liabilities due to third parties from time to time). This includes the risk that a third party to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations; the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they fall due; and the risk that market prices may vary which will affect the Company's income.
General regulatory risks	The Company's business is subject to, in each of the countries in which the Company operates, or may operate, various national and local laws and regulations relating to the mining, production, marketing, pricing, transportation and storage of the Company's products and/or residues. Permits from a variety of regulatory authorities may be required for aspects of the Company's operations. Many of those permits may be subject to conditions, and a change in the conditions attaching to those permits, or the imposition of new conditions, that could have a material adverse effect on the Company's proposed business and financial condition. A change in the laws which apply to the Company's business or the way in which it is regulated could also have a

	material adverse effect on the Company's business and financial condition. Other changes in the regulatory environment (including applicable accounting standards) may have a material adverse effect on the carrying value of material assets or otherwise have a material adverse effect on the Company's business and/or financial condition.
Environmental risks	The Company's possible future mine development and processing program will, in general, be subject to approval by governmental authorities. Development of any of the Company's properties will be dependent on the project meeting environmental guidelines and, where required, being approved by governmental authorities and the possible future activities of the Company may be subject to extensive laws and regulations controlling not only the mining of, exploration for and processing of mineral properties, but also the possible effects of such activities upon the environment and interests of local communities. In the context of obtaining environmental permits, including the approval of reclamation plans, the Company must comply with known standards, existing laws and regulations which may entail greater or lesser costs and delays depending on the nature of the activity to be permitted and how stringently the regulations are implemented by the permitting authority. With increasingly heightened government and public sensitivity to environmental sustainability, environmental regulation is becoming more stringent, and the Company could be subject to increasing environmental responsibility and liability, including laws and regulations dealing with air quality, water and noise pollution or other discharges of materials into the environment, plant and wildlife protection, the reclamation and restoration of certain of its properties, greenhouse gas emissions, the storage, treatment and disposal of wastes or the effects of its business on the water table and groundwater quality. Sanctions for non-compliance with these laws and regulations may include administrative, civil and criminal penalties, revocation of permits and corrective action orders. These laws sometimes apply retroactively. In addition, a party can be liable for environmental damage without regard to that party's negligence or fault.
Economic risks	Economic factors beyond the control of the Company, such as changes in commodity prices, interest rates, inflation, exchange rates and taxation, may negatively impact on the revenue and profitability of the Company.
Additional requirements for capital	The Company's capital requirements depend on numerous factors. The Company will require further financing in addition to amounts raised under this Offer. Any additional equity financing will dilute shareholdings, and debt financing, if available, may involve restrictions on financing and operating activities. If the Company is unable to obtain additional financing as needed, it may be required to reduce the scope of its operations and scale back its planned construction and development programs as the case may be.
Political (Malaysia)	risk The Company's HPA plant operates in Malaysia. The fragility of the incumbent Malaysian federal coalition government has not, as yet, transpired into radical policy or regulation change, however risks remain that a change in political leadership could bring about policy and regulatory changes in the future, that may affect the Company and its planned HPA plant. Hence, there is no assurance that any

	unfavourable developments or change in the political and economic situation in Malaysia would not adversely affect the Company's ability to conduct business in the country.
Climate risk	There are a number of climate-related factors that may affect the operations and proposed activities of the Company. The climate change risks particularly attributable to the Company include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) the emergence of new or expanded regulations associated with the transitioning to a lower-carbon economy and market changes related to climate change mitigation. The Company may be impacted by changes to local or international compliance regulations related to climate change mitigation efforts, or by specific taxation or penalties for carbon emissions or environmental damage. These examples sit amongst an array of possible restraints on industry that may further impact the Company and its profitability. While the Company will endeavour to manage these risks and limit any consequential impacts, there can be no guarantee that the Company will not be impacted by these occurrences; and (b) climate change may cause certain physical and environmental risks that cannot be predicted by the Company, including events such as increased severity of weather patterns and incidence of extreme weather events and longer-term physical risks such as shifting climate patterns. All these risks associated with climate change may significantly change the industry in which the Company operates.
Joint venture risk	The Company's interests in the projects are subject to joint venture arrangements. As with any joint venture, it is subject to various counterparty risks including failure by the joint venture counterparty, to act in the best interests of the joint venture. Any failure by the counterparty to act in the best interests of the joint venture may or may not give the Company contractual remedies, however, even if such remedies are available, they may be costly and time consuming to pursue. In addition, the Company's subsidiary Altech Batteries GmbH (ABG) entered into a Research and Development Agreement with Fraunhofer-Institut Fur Keramische Technologien Und Systeme IKTS (Fraunhofer) to develop battery systems for stationary energy storage based on sodium nickel chloride technology. The aim is to bring the technology to commercial production through the development of a 120MWh battery production plant in Saxony, Germany. Under the terms of the Research and Development Agreement: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) The project started on 13 September 2022 and has an expected period of performance of 4 years. (b) ABG makes quarterly payments up to a total combined amount of €13,600,000 for services performed by Fraunhofer, in accordance with an R&D Payment Plan, over a period of 4 years commencing on 13 December 2022. In the event that ABG fails to provide timely payment, Fraunhofer may terminate the R&D contract. In the event that this was to occur, the Company would have no further rights or interests in the CERENERGY® battery project.

	If commercialisation becomes unviable through the outcome of a Definitive Feasibility Study, ABH may terminate the R&D contract.
Sovereign risk	The projects are located in Germany and Malaysia and will be subject to the risks associated in operating in a foreign country. These risks may include economic, social or political instability or change, hyperinflation, currency non-convertibility or instability and changes of law affecting foreign ownership, government participation, taxation, working conditions, rates of exchange, exchange control, exploration licensing, export duties, repatriation of income or return of capital, environmental protection, labour relations as well as government control over natural resources or government regulations that require the employment of local staff or contractors or require other benefits to be provided to local residents. Any future material adverse changes in government policies or legislation in foreign jurisdictions in which the Company has projects that affect foreign ownership, exploration, development or activities of companies involved in exploration and production, may affect the viability and profitability of the Company.
Royalties	The sodium-chloride solid-state battery project is subject to a 1.5% royalty payable on batteries sold from the relevant project. The payment of these royalties may affect the economics of a project progressing to development and production.

6.3 Industry specific

Risk Category	Risk
Customer and market acceptance	Many customers have long term supply agreements in place with their battery supplier. It is probable that a potential customer would require time to test new batteries in their end-user products, negotiate new agreements, machine up to manufacture new batteries, potentially adapt their products to work with the new battery and utilise their current battery stock. As a result, despite the Company's battery design being successful there may be a considerable period of time before the Company generates revenues and cash inflows.
Specific design risk	The Company is researching and developing the use of HPA coated silicon for anode material in lithium batteries, along with its Sodium Chloride Solid State battery (R&D Products). The use of the R&D Products are not yet comprehensively tested and verified at commercial scale, and the Company may not be able to develop and commercially produce the anode material or Sodium Chloride Solid State that is more competitive to other anode materials and existing batteries in use.
Competitors	Many potential competitors operate their own manufacturing facilities, have a long history of operations, presence in key markets, large customer bases, brand recognition, significant resources dedicated to research and technology and product development and access to financial resources. These competitors may be able to adapt more quickly to new or emerging technologies, changes in customer requirements and may have greater resources committed to the research sales and marketing of their technologies and products. They may have or may establish financial or strategic relationships with

	existing customers, resellers or other third parties. As a result, competitors may develop new technologies or better position themselves to compete resulting in pricing pressures, decreased gross margins and loss of market share which could materially adversely affect the Company's business, financial condition and the results of its operations.
Patent applications	The Company holds a combination of granted patents as well as pending applications and acknowledges that its prospect of obtaining patent protection for products and the technology such as those proposed under the patent applications is uncertain and involves complex and continually evolving factual and legal questions with such questions potentially impacted by legislative and judicial changes, or changes to examination guidelines in relevant jurisdictions. There is a risk provisional patent applications may not proceed to granted patents or may not afford the Company adequate protection from competing products. Even if the Company succeeds in obtaining patent protection for its products, its patents could be wholly or partially invalidated following challenges by third parties.
Operating and development risks	The Company's ability to achieve production, development, operating cost and capital expenditure estimates on a timely basis cannot be assured. The Company's business involves many risks and may be impacted by factors including the overall availability of free cash to fund continuing development activities, labour force disruptions, cost overruns, changes in the regulatory environment and other unforeseen contingencies. Such occurrences could result in damage to, or destruction of, production facilities, personal injury or death, environmental damage, delays in production, increased production costs and other monetary losses and possible legal liability to the owner or operator of the project. In addition, the Company's profitability could be adversely affected if for any reason its production and processing of or project development is unexpectedly interrupted or slowed. Examples of events which could have such an impact include unscheduled plant shutdowns or other processing problems, mechanical failures, the unavailability of materials and equipment, unusual or unexpected rock formations, poor or unexpected geological or metallurgical conditions, poor water condition, interruptions to electricity supplies, human error and adverse weather conditions.
Extraterritorial risks	The Company has interests in assets overseas, namely Germany and Malaysia, and in that respect such assets are subject to risks particular to their extraterritoriality such as changes in laws, practices and policies in the relevant jurisdictions, including laws that deal with overseas investors. In particular, logistical difficulties may arise due to the assets being located overseas including the incurring of additional costs with respect to overseeing and managing the projects, including costs associated with taking advice in relation to the application of local laws as well as the cost of establishing a local presence in Germany and Malaysia. Changes to Germany or Malaysia's mining or investment policies and legislation or a shift in political attitude may adversely affect the Company's operations and profitability. It is not possible for the Company to accurately predict any developments or

	changes in laws or policy or to what extent any such developments or changes may have a material adverse effect on the Company's operations.
Project development	Possible future development of the Company's projects are dependent on a number of factors including but not limited to, receiving the necessary approvals from all relevant authorities and parties, unanticipated technical and operational difficulties, mechanical failure of equipment, shortages or increases in the price of consumables, spare parts and plant and equipment, cost overruns, access to the required level of funding and contracting risk from third parties providing essential services.
Fluctuation in commodity prices	International factors such as inflation, exchange rates, supply and demand and political and economic events, amongst other things, impact on lithium prices, particularly in the current global economic market. As the Company is currently not in production, future revenue that may come from the sale of these mineral products and the Company's future profits are related to and influenced by the market price of lithium products. If the price of Sodium Chloride Solid State batteries or HPA seriously declines in the future, this will materially impact on the Company's ability to continue with its projects and the Company may be forced to discontinue some or all of its operations. The Company gives no assurance that the fluctuations in the commodity prices will not affect timing and viability of the projects.

6.4 General risks

Risk Category	Risk
Market conditions	Share market conditions may affect the value of the Company's quoted securities regardless of the Company's operating performance. Share market conditions are affected by many factors such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) general economic outlook; (b) introduction of tax reform or other new legislation; (c) interest rates and inflation rates; (d) changes in investor sentiment toward particular market sectors; (e) the demand for, and supply of, capital; and (f) terrorism or other hostilities. The market price of securities can fall as well as rise and may be subject to varied and unpredictable influences on the market for equities in general and resource exploration and mining stocks in particular. Neither the Company nor the Directors warrant the future performance of the Company or any return on an investment in the Company. In addition, the extent of the effects of COVID-19 is at this stage uncertain and continuing to evolve. The COVID-19 pandemic is having, and is expected to continue to have, a significant influence on the volatility of equity markets generally and may continue to impact and influence the value of the Company's quoted securities.
Liquidity risk	There can be no guarantee that there will always be an active market for the Company's shares or that the price of Shares will be maintained or increase. There may be relatively few buyers

Risk Category	Risk
	or sellers of shares on the ASX at any given time and the demand for the Company shares specifically is subject to various factors, many of which are beyond the Company's control. This may affect the volatility of the market price of Shares. It may also affect the prevailing market price at which the Company shareholders are able to sell their Shares. This may result in the Company's shareholders receiving a market price for their Shares that is less or more than the price paid pursuant to the Offer (as applicable).
Funding	The Company's ability to effectively implement its business and operations plans in the future, to take advantage of opportunities for acquisitions, joint ventures or other business opportunities and to meet any unanticipated liabilities or expenses which the Company may incur may depend in part on its ability to raise additional funds. The Company may seek to raise further funds through equity or debt financing, joint ventures, production sharing arrangements or other means. Further, the Company, in the ordinary course of its operations and developments, is required to issue financial assurances, particularly insurances and bond/bank guarantee instruments to secure statutory and environmental performance undertakings and commercial arrangements. The Company's ability to provide such assurances is subject to external financial and credit market assessments, and its own financial position. Loan agreements and other financing rearrangements such as debt facilities, convertible note issue and finance leases (and any related guarantee and security) that may be entered into by the Company may contain covenants, undertakings and other provisions which, if breached, may entitle lenders to accelerate repayment of loans and there is no assurance that the Company would be able to repay such loans in the event of an acceleration. Enforcement of any security granted by the Company or default under a finance lease could also result in the loss of assets. The Company is exposed to risks associated with its financial instruments (consisting of cash, receivables, accounts payable and accrued liabilities due to third parties from time to time). This includes the risk that a third party to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations; the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they fall due; and the risk that market prices may vary which will affect the Company's income.
Litigation risks	The Company may be exposed to possible litigation risks including intellectual property claims, contractual disputes, occupational health and safety claims and employee claims. Further, the Company may be involved in disputes with other parties in the future which may result in litigation. Any such claim or dispute if proven, may impact adversely on the Company's operations, financial performance and financial position. The Company is not currently engaged in any litigation.
Taxation	The acquisition and disposal of Shares will have tax consequences, which will differ depending on the individual financial affairs of each investor. All prospective investors in the Company are urged to obtain independent financial advice about the consequences of acquiring Shares from a taxation viewpoint and generally. To the maximum extent permitted by law, the Company, its officers and each of their respective advisors accept no liability

	and responsibility with respect to the taxation consequences of subscribing for Shares under this Prospectus.
Reliance on key personnel	The responsibility of overseeing the day-to-day operations and the strategic management of the Company depends substantially on its senior management and its key personnel. There can be no assurance given that there will be no detrimental impact on the Company if one or more of these employees cease their employment.
Investment risk	There are a number of risks associated with any stock market investment. The market price of Shares can be expected to rise and fall in accordance with general market conditions and factors. The value of the Shares will be determined by the stock market and will be subject to a range of factors beyond the control of the Company or its Directors. These factors include movements in local and international stock exchanges, local interest rates and exchange rates, domestic and international economic and political conditions, government taxation, market supply, competition and demand and other legal, regulatory or policy changes. The trading price after listing may also be affected by the financial and operating performance of the Company.
Management actions	Directors of the Company will, to the best of their knowledge, experience and ability endeavour to anticipate, identify and manage the risks inherent in the activities of the Company, but without assuming any personal liability for the same, with the aim of eliminating, avoiding and mitigating the impact of risks on the performance of the Company and its security.
Changes in government policies and legislation	Any material adverse changes in government policies or legislation of Australia, Germany, Malaysia or any other country that the Company may acquire economic interests in may affect the viability and profitability of the Company.
Unforeseen expenditure risk	Expenditure may need to be incurred that has not been taken into account in the preparation of this Prospectus. Although the Company is not aware of any such additional expenditure requirements, if such expenditure is subsequently incurred, this may adversely affect the expenditure proposals of the Company.
Insurance risk	The Company is subject to a number of operational risks and may not be adequately insured for certain risks, including industrial and transportation accidents, catastrophic accidents, changes in the regulatory environment, natural occurrences or technical failures.
Legislative	Changes in relevant taxes, legal and administration regimes, accounting practice and government policies may adversely affect the financial performance of the Company.
Global Conflict	The current evolving conflict between Ukraine and Russia and Israel and Hamas (Ukraine and Gaza Conflicts) is impacting global economic markets. The nature and extent of the effect of the Ukraine and Gaza Conflicts on the performance of the Company remains unknown. The Company's Share price may be adversely affected in the short to medium term by the economic uncertainty caused by the Ukraine and Gaza Conflicts.

Risk Category	Risk
	The Directors are continuing to closely monitor the potential secondary and tertiary macroeconomic impacts of the unfolding events, including the changing pricing of commodity and energy markets and the potential of cyber activity impacting governments and businesses. Further, any governmental or industry measures taken in response to the Ukraine and Gaza Conflicts, including limitations on travel and changes to import/export restrictions and arrangements involving the relevant countries may adversely impact the Company's operations and are likely to be beyond the control of the Company. The Company is monitoring the situation closely and considers the impact of the Ukraine and Gaza Conflicts on the Company's business and financial performance to, at this stage, be limited. However, the situation is continually evolving, and the consequences are therefore inevitably uncertain.

6.5 Speculative investment

The above list of risk factors ought not to be taken as exhaustive of the risks faced by the Company or by investors in the Company. The above factors, and others not specifically referred to above, may in the future materially affect the financial performance of the Company and the Securities offered under this Prospectus.

Therefore, the Securities to be issued pursuant to this Prospectus carry no guarantee with respect to the payment of dividends, returns of capital or the market value of those Securities.

Potential investors should consider that the investment in the Company is highly speculative and should consult their professional advisers before deciding whether to apply for Securities pursuant to this Prospectus.

7.2 Continuous disclosure obligations

The Company is a “disclosing entity” (as defined in section 111AC of the Corporations Act) for the purposes of section 713 of the Corporations Act and, as such, is subject to regular reporting and disclosure obligations. Specifically, like all listed companies, the Company is required to continuously disclose any information it has to the market which a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or the value of the Company's securities.

This Prospectus is a “transaction specific prospectus”. In general terms a “transaction specific prospectus” is only required to contain information in relation to the effect of the issue of securities on the Company and the rights attaching to the securities. It is not necessary to include general information in relation to all of the assets and liabilities, financial position, profits and losses or prospects of the issuing company.

This Prospectus is intended to be read in conjunction with the publicly available information in relation to the Company which has been notified to ASX and does not include all of the information that would be included in a prospectus for an initial public offering of securities in an entity that is not already listed on a stock exchange. Investors should therefore have regard to the other publicly available information in relation to the Company before making a decision whether or not to invest.

Having taken such precautions and having made such enquires as are reasonable, the Company believes that it has complied with the general and specific requirements of ASX as applicable from time to time throughout the 3 months before the issue of this Prospectus which required the Company to notify ASX of information about specified events or matters as they arise for the purpose of ASX making that information available to the stock market conducted by ASX.

Information that is already in the public domain has not been reported in this Prospectus other than that which is considered necessary to make this Prospectus complete.

The Company, as a disclosing entity under the Corporations Act states that:

- (a) it is subject to regular reporting and disclosure obligations;

- (b) copies of documents lodged with the ASIC in relation to the Company (not being documents referred to in section 1274(2)(a) of the Corporations Act) may be obtained from, or inspected at, the offices of the ASIC; and
