As previously announced, long serving Catalyst Non-Executive Chair, Steve Boston, has formally resigned as a director of the Company.

Mr Boston had advised of his intention to retire from the Board of Directors as part of the planned Board renewal process.

The Board acknowledges the significant contribution made by Mr Boston during his tenure as Chair during the development of the Company into a multi-asset gold producer.

The Company is continuing to progress the recruitment process for a new Non-Executive Chair.

Attached is an Appendix 3Z, final directors interest notice, on behalf of Mr Boston.

This announcement has been approved for release by the Board of Directors of Catalyst Metals Limited.
