Aurora Labs Limited ("A3D" or "the Company") (ASX:A3D), wishes to advise of the employment of two key advisers, established to drive sales of the recently launched AL250 Printer and increase print services sales to industry, including key sectors such as Defence, Oil & Gas and Mining.

Mr Steve Zaninovich is a highly qualified civil engineer with over 25 years' project management experience in Australia and overseas. He is currently a Non-Executive Director of Canyon Resources Ltd, Sarama Resources Ltd, Mako Gold Ltd, Chair of Maximus Resources Limited and was previously an Executive Director with Lycopodium Minerals and Non-Executive Director with Centaurus Metals, Gryphon Minerals, Indiana Resources and Orway Minerals Consultants.

The Hon. Chris Ellison is Chancellor of the University of Notre Dame Australia (since 2018), having been a Director of the University since 2015 and a Governor since 2009. He is Trustee/Director of the SAS Resource Trust Fund and is a Senior Advisor to Quintis Corporation. For the last nine years, he has been a Director/Trustee of the Commonwealth Superannuation Corporation which manages superannuation for current and former members of the ADF.

The Hon Chris Ellison was also a cabinet minister in the Howard Government and in the Ministry for over 10 years having held a number of portfolios including Justice and Customs and remains Australia's longest serving Justice Minister.

CEO Rebekah Letheby commented: "We look forward to working with our new strategic advisors, Mr Ellison and Mr Zaninovich. The benefit of such counsel will bring decisive added value to the dynamic development and operation of Aurora Labs, as both members share their knowledge and insights into the defence and mining sectors which can complement our commercial strategies to grow our business."

These appointments support Auroras' strategy to advance its AM solutions business across the mineral processing sectors following the successful extension of the Alcoa and Chevron contracts and allows for increased engagement within the Defence relationships at a federal level."

Each advisor shall receive 1,000,000 performance rights convertible to shares upon meeting key performance milestones associated to grant funding and purchase orders for parts and printers in defence and resources related activities. These performance rights will be issued following the 2023 AGM.

Ends

Approved for release by the Company's Board of Directors.
