Development of Claw Stars

Claw Star has been developed over 12 months in iCandy's studios and is currently available on Google's Android platform. Once the early access trial is completed, Claw Stars will be released commercially onto both Apple iOS and Google Android platforms.

The development of Claw Stars took extensive input from the studio team of iCandy's hit title Masketeers, with regards to playability, retention and monetization design aspects of the game. iCandy's studio team has learned valuable skills and domain knowledge from the success of Masketeers, and is applying those skills and knowledge fully onto the development of Claw Stars.
