The Offer will only be extended to specific non-related parties on invitation from the Directors. Application Forms will only be provided by the Company to these parties.

The new Shares offered under this Prospectus will rank equally with the existing Shares on issue. A high-level summary of the material rights and liabilities attaching to the Shares is set out in Section 4.

2.2 Indicative timetable

Action	Date*
Lodgement of Prospectus with ASIC and ASX	30 March 2022
Opening Date	31 March 2022
Closing Date*	4 April 2022

 The above dates are indicative only and may change without notice. The Directors reserve the right to vary these dates, including the Closing Date, without notice. The Company also reserves the right not to proceed with the Offer at any time before the issue of Shares to invited Applicants.*

2.3 Minimum subscription

There is no minimum subscription.

2.4 Oversubscriptions

No oversubscriptions will be accepted by the Company.

2.5 Background to the Offer

As announced on 9 March 2022, the Company raised $11.35 million via an institutional placement of 20,636,361 Shares at $0.55 per Share ('Placement'). The proceeds from the Placement will be used to partially fund the $38.5 million purchase price for a Purchased Debt Portfolio ('Portfolio'). The Company intends to fund approximately $28.5 million of the purchase price for the Portfolio under its increased Senior debt facility.

On 16 March 2022, the Company issued 20,636,361 Shares under the Placement.

2.6 Purpose of the Offer

The primary purpose of the Offer and this Prospectus is to remove any on-sale trading restrictions that may have attached to the Shares issued under the Placement, and any other Shares issued by the Company without disclosure under Chapter 6D of the Corporations Act, on or before the Closing Date.

By the Company complying with section 708A(11) of the Corporations Act, the Shareholders who received Shares can sell those Shares within the next twelve months without the issue of a prospectus or other disclosure document.

Relevantly, section 708A(11) of the Corporations Act provides that a sale offer does not need disclosure to investors if:

- (a) the relevant securities are in a class of securities that are quoted securities of the body; and
- (b) either
 - (i) a prospectus is lodged with ASIC on or after the day on which the relevant securities were issued but before the day on which the sale offer is made; or
 - (ii) a prospectus is lodged with ASIC before the day on which the relevant securities are issued and offers of securities that have been made under the prospectus are still open for acceptance on the day on which the relevant securities were issued; and
- (c) the prospectus is for an offer of securities issued by the body that are in the same class of securities as the relevant securities.

The Company is seeking to raise only a nominal amount of $55 under this Prospectus and, accordingly, the purpose of this Prospectus is not to raise capital. These funds will be put towards the costs of the Offer.

2.7 Applications

Applications for Shares under the Offer must only be made those persons personally invited to accept the Offer and submitted using an Application Form provided by the Company to invited investors.

By completing the Application Form, an Applicant will be taken to have declared that all details and statements made by the Applicant are complete and accurate and that the Applicant has received personally the Application Form together with a complete and unaltered copy of the Prospectus.

Payment for Shares must be made in full at the issue price of $0.55 per Share. Completed Application Forms and accompanying evidence of payment of the application price must be delivered to the address set out on the Application Form by no later than the Closing Date.

The Directors reserve the right to issue Shares pursuant to the Offer at their absolute discretion. Accordingly, potential investors should not submit an Application Form unless directed to do so by the Directors.

The Company reserves the right to close the Offer early.

2.8 Not underwritten

The Offer is not underwritten and there is no sponsor broking.

2.9 ASX listing

Application for Official Quotation by ASX of the Shares offered pursuant to this Prospectus will be made within 7 days after the date of this Prospectus, subject to the receipt and acceptance of applications. If the Shares are not admitted to Official Quotation by ASX before the expiration of 3 months after the date of issue of this Prospectus, or such period as varied by ASIC, the Company will not issue any Shares and will repay all application monies for the Shares within the time prescribed under the Corporations Act, without interest.

The fact that ASX may grant Official Quotation to the Shares is not to be taken in any way as an indication of the merits of the Company or the Shares now offered for subscription.

2.10 Issue

The issue of Shares offered by this Prospectus will take place as soon as practicable after the Closing Date, subject to the receipt and acceptance of applications. Pending the issue of the Shares or payment of refunds pursuant to this Prospectus, all application monies will be held by the Company in trust for the Applicants in a separate bank account as required by the Corporations Act. The Company, however, will be entitled to retain all interest that accrues on the bank account and each Applicant waives the right to claim interest.

The Directors will determine the recipients of all the Shares. The Directors reserve the right to reject any application or to allocate any Applicant none or fewer Shares than the number applied for. Where the number of Shares issued is less than the number applied for, or where no issue is made, surplus application monies will be refunded without any interest to the Applicant as soon as practicable after the Closing Date. Interest will not be paid on moneys refunded.

The Company's decision on the number of Shares to be allocated to an Applicant will be final.

2.11 Defects in Applications

If an Application Form is not completed correctly or if the accompanying payment is the wrong amount, the Company may, in its discretion, still treat the Application Form to be valid. The Company's decision to treat an Application Form as valid, or how to construe, amend or complete it, will be final.

2.12 Applicants outside Australia

The distribution of this Prospectus outside of Australia may be restricted by law.

This Offer does not, and is not intended to, constitute an offer in any place or jurisdiction in which, or to any person to whom, it would not be lawful to make such an offer or to issue this Prospectus.

Residents of countries outside Australia should consult their professional advisers as to whether any government or other consents are required, or whether any formalities need to be observed should they wish to make an application to take up Shares on the basis of this Prospectus. The return of a duly completed Application Form will be taken to constitute a representation and warranty that there has been no breach of such laws and that all approvals and consents have been obtained.

2.13 Use of funds raised under the Offer

After paying for the expenses of the Offer of approximately $10,000, there will be no proceeds from the Offer. The additional expenses of the Offer will be met from the Company's existing cash reserves.

2.14 Enquiries

Any questions concerning the Offer should be directed to Ms Sue Symmons, Company Secretary, on +61 8 9323 5020.

3.2 Potential effect on control

The Offer will not have a material effect on the control of the Company.

3.3 Financial effect of the Offer

The effect of the Offer on the Company's financial position will be minimal. The expenses of the Offer in excess of the proceeds received will be met by the Company's existing cash reserves, resulting in the Company's cash reserves decreasing by approximately $10,000.

A pro forma statement of financial position showing the financial effect of the Offer on the Company's Balance Sheet has not been included in this Prospectus as the issue of up to 100 Shares pursuant to this Prospectus will not have a material impact on the Company's financial position.

A consolidated statement of the Company's financial position for the half year ended 31 December 2021 was lodged with ASX on 28 February 2022. Additionally, the financial position for the financial year ended 30 June 2021 is included in the Company's 2021 Annual Report which The Annual Report and half-year report is available to Shareholders free from charge on Company's website at <https://pioneercredit.com.au/corporate/asx-announcements>

4. RIGHTS AND LIABILITIES ATTACHING TO SHARES

The following is a summary of the more significant rights and liabilities attaching to the Shares to be issued pursuant to this Prospectus. This summary is not exhaustive and does not constitute a definitive statement of the rights and liabilities of Shareholders. To obtain such a statement, persons should seek independent legal advice.

The rights and liabilities attaching to the Shares are set out in the Company's Constitution and are regulated by the Corporations Act, the general law, the ASX Listing Rules and the ASX Settlement Operating Rules. A copy of the Constitution is available on the Company's website at Constitution.

4.1 General meetings

Shareholders are entitled to receive at least 28 days' notice of a general meeting and subject to any preferential or special rights attaching to any shares that may be issued by the Company in the future, Shareholders are entitled to be present in person, or by proxy, attorney or representative to speak and to vote at general meetings of the Company's Shareholders.

Shareholders are entitled to receive all notices, reports, accounts and other documents required to be furnished to Shareholders under the Constitution and the Corporations Act.

Shareholders may requisition meetings in accordance with section 249D of the Corporations Act and the Constitution.

4.2 Voting rights

Subject to the Corporations Act, the ASX Listing Rules, the Constitution and to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any shares or class of Shares, at general meetings of Shareholders or classes of Shareholders:

- (a) each Shareholder entitled to vote may vote in person or by proxy, attorney or representative;
- (b) on a show of hands, every person present who is a Shareholder or a proxy, attorney or representative of a Shareholder has one vote; and
- (c) on a poll, every person present who is a Shareholder or a proxy, attorney or representative of a Shareholder shall, in respect of each fully paid Share held by them, or in respect of which they are appointed a proxy, attorney or representative, have one vote for the Share, but in respect of partly paid Shares shall have such number of votes as bears the same proportion to the total of such Shares registered in the Shareholder's name as the amount paid (not credited) bears to the total amounts paid and payable (excluding amounts credited).

4.3 Dividend rights

Subject to the rights of any preference Shareholders and to the rights of the holders of any shares created or raised under any special arrangement as to dividend, the Directors may from time to time declare a dividend to be paid to the Shareholders entitled to the dividend which shall be payable on all Shares according to the proportion that the amount paid (not credited) is of the total amounts paid and payable (excluding amounts credited) in respect of such Shares.

The Directors may from time to time pay to the Shareholders any interim dividends as they may determine. No dividend shall carry interest as against the Company. The Directors may set aside out of the profits of the Company any amounts that they may determine as reserves, to be applied at the discretion of the Directors, for any purpose for which the profits of the Company may be properly applied.

In accordance with Pioneer's ASX Announcement on 13 February 2020, the Pioneer Board has exercised its discretion to suspend the Pioneer dividend reinvestment plan ('DRP') in accordance with the terms and conditions of the DRP. This means that no Pioneer Shareholder will be issued Shares under the DRP, regardless of if, or when they have elected to participate in the DRP. The Directors are not able to say when and if dividends will be paid in the future, as the payment of any dividends will depend on the future profitability, financial position and cash requirements of the Company.

4.4 Winding-up

If the Company is wound up, the liquidator may, with the authority of a special resolution of the Company, divide among the shareholders in kind the whole or any part of the property of the Company, and may for that purpose set such value as it considers fair upon any property to be so divided, and may determine how the division is to be carried out as between the Shareholders or different classes of Shareholders.

The liquidator may, with the authority of a special resolution of the Company, vest the whole or any part of any such property in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of the contributories as the liquidator thinks fit, but so that no Shareholder is compelled to accept any Shares or other securities in respect of which there is any liability.

4.5 Shareholder liability

As the Shares under the Prospectus are fully paid shares, they are not subject to any calls for money by the Directors and will therefore not become liable for forfeiture.

4.6 Transfer of Shares

Shares in the Company may be transferred in any form authorised by the Corporations Act or approved by the Directors and in the manner prescribed by the Constitution, the Corporations Act, the ASX Listing Rules or the ASX Settlement and Operating Rules.

The Directors may, subject to the ASX Listing Rules and the ASX Settlement and Operating Rules, request an ASX approved clearing and settlement facility to apply a holding lock to prevent any transfer of Shares. The Directors may refuse to register a paper based transfer of a Share in particular circumstances.

4.7 Issue of further Shares

The Board control the allotment, issue, grant of options in respect of and disposal of Shares. Subject to restrictions on the allotment of securities under the ASX Listing Rules and the Corporations Act, the Board may allot, grant options or otherwise dispose of Shares on such terms and conditions as it sees fit.

4.8 Variation of rights

Pursuant to section 246B of the Corporations Act, the Company may, with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a meeting of Shareholders vary or abrogate the rights attaching to the Shares.

If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of Shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class), whether or not the Company is being wound up, may be varied or abrogated with the consent in writing of the holders of three-quarters of the issued shares of that class, or if authorised by a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of the shares of that class.

4.9 Alteration of Constitution

The Constitution can only be amended by a special resolution passed by at least three quarters of Shareholders present and voting at the general meeting. In addition, at least 28 days' written notice specifying the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution must be given.

4.10 Application of ASX Listing Rules

While the Company is admitted to the Official List of the ASX, despite anything in the Constitution, if the ASX Listing Rules prohibit an act being done, the act must not be done. Nothing in the Constitution prevents an act being done that the ASX Listing Rules require to be done. If the ASX Listing Rules require an act to be done or not to be done, authority is given for that act to be done or not to be done (as the case may be). If the ASX Listing Rules require a Constitution to contain a provision or not to contain a provision, the Constitution is deemed to contain that provision or not to contain that provision (as the case may be). If a provision of the Constitution is or becomes inconsistent with the ASX Listing Rules, the Constitution is deemed not to contain that provision to the extent of that inconsistency.

5. RISKS

The Pioneer Board considers that it is appropriate for Shareholders to be aware that there are a number of risk factors, general and specific to the Group's business, which could materially adversely affect the future operating and financial performance of Pioneer and the value of Shares.

This Section 5 identifies some, but not all, of the major risks associated with an investment in Pioneer and general investment risks. This Prospectus should be read in its entirety in order to fully appreciate such matters and the manner in which Pioneer currently operates before any decision is made on whether to invest under this Prospectus.

5.1 Risks associated with Pioneer's business

(a) Russia/Ukraine conflict

Pioneer recognises that the Russia/Ukraine conflict and the various actions by the rest of the world including the imposing of certain sanctions may impact the world economy, the financial services market, Pioneer's operations and the price of the Shares.

(b) Pandemic risk

Pioneer recognises that the impact of a pandemic on its customers is dependent on the nature of the outbreak of the infectious disease.

The Group is committed to treating its customers with respect by recognising their individual circumstances and seeking to ensure that personnel are equipped and informed to deal with each customer's needs during a pandemic situation.

The Company's success in working with its customers over time is based on a number of factors that mitigates default risk with people who have experienced financial difficulty. These include:

- treating them with empathy, understanding and respect;
- offering expert help in getting over financial challenges;
- a high investment in analytics to match effort and engagement method to a customer's financial capability;
- investing only in quality account portfolios from leading financial institutions; and
- Pioneer's people, who are here to help, rather than chase, and who work in a culture of strong values where a premium is placed on customer service and empathy.

The nature and extent of the effects of an outbreak of an infectious disease are uncertain and difficult to predict. Specifically, the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, and the advice and responses from health and regulatory authorities, is continuously developing. The Directors are continuing to closely monitor the situation and the impact on the Company's business from both a financial and operational perspective.

(c) Sufficiency of funding

There are presently reasonable grounds to believe that the Company will be able to pay its debts as and when they become due and payable. On 8 November 2021, Pioneer refinanced its existing debt follows:-

- Facility Amount up to A$200.0m, consisting of:
 - Tranche 1: A$125.0m Term Facility (fully drawn at inception)
 - Tranche 2: A$50.0m Revolving Facility (partially drawn at inception)
 - Tranche 3: A$25.0m Growth Facility (undrawn at inception)
- Initial term of four years expiring November 2025;
- The Facility has a first ranking fixed and floating charge over all the assets of the Group; and
- Variable interest rate plus BBSY (minimum 0.25%). The variable interest rate is set by the Advance Rate on the facility. The Advance Rate refers to the aggregate principal amount in respect of all facilities divided by the aggregate book value of the PDPs.

Advance Rate	Margin
<= 60%	7.25% per annum
> 60% and <= 65%	7.75% per annum
> 65% and <= 70%	8.25% per annum
> 70%	8.75% per annum

- The default rate is an additional margin of 4.0% p.a. over the applicable interest rate;
- Establishment fee of 2.5% of facility total;
- Unused line fee of 1.5% per annum (not applicable to the growth facility until first drawdown);
- Funding by Pioneer will be limited to the Borrowing Base. The Borrowing Base is calculated monthly, as PDP value as a percentage to each tranche based on nature of the underlying receivables;
- The Company has two prepayment options on the Facility:
 - Make whole interest payment applies to tranche 1 of the Facility if it is repaid up to 24 months post financial close; and
 - Early repayment premium of 1% applies to tranche 1 of the Facility if it is repaid in the period 24 to 30 months post financial close.
- The financial covenants are tested monthly and shall include:
 - compliance with the Borrowing Base;
 - a minimum Interest Cover Ratio of 2.0x to apply;

- no equity is to be released to the shareholders during the term of the Facility; and
- Group change of control covenant.
- The Collateral Performance Triggers are tested monthly and shall include but not limited to:
 - Actual-to-Expected Collections Ratio for each individual cohort (financial year vintage) is not less than 85%; and
 - Actual-to-Expected Collections Ratio (total) is not less than 75%.

On 24 March 2022, Pioneer amended its Facility Agreement by increasing its Facility Amount by an additional $40m under new Tranche 4, largely on the same terms subject to the following: -

- Availability Period of up to 2 months from close of Tranche 4
- Tranche 4 to be drawn in up to 3 drawdowns during the Availability Period
Liquidations received from the servicing of the Debt Portfolio will be applied to the Tranche 4 Facility on each Facility Payment Date.
- The Margin is determined with reference to the Loan to Value ("LTV") at the start of the interest period. The Margin on Tranche 4 is independent of the margin on Tranche 1 to Tranche 3 of the Facility.
- LTV is calculated as the outstanding Tranche 4 amount / (Tranche 4 outstanding amount + Equity Support at Tranche 4 drawdown)

Pioneer's ability to raise additional funds will be subject to, among other things, factors beyond the control of Pioneer and the Directors, including cyclical factors affecting the economy and share markets generally. The Directors can give no assurance that future funds can be raised by Pioneer on favourable terms, if at all.

(d) Breach of finance facility covenant

A breach of a covenant under the Company's facility agreement could potentially result in its financiers calling the debt, if not remedied within the agreed timeframe.

The Company's forecasts of the Group's liquidity reserve and compliance with debt covenants based on expected cash flow are continuously managed and monitored. Cash flow and covenant compliance is forecast on a day-to-day basis.

(e) Availability and pricing of debt portfolios

In order to continue its profitable growth, Pioneer needs to be able to purchase debt portfolios at appropriate prices and manage the accounts comprising the portfolio to maximise recovery on those accounts. The availability of debt portfolios at appropriate prices is affected by a number of factors, some of which are outside Pioneer's control, including:

- the level of credit being extended to consumers, and the percentage of such credit in arrears;

- the level of unemployment and rate of consumer savings which can have a major impact on the level of credit in arrears. Credit arrears are a function of a borrower's ability to pay, which is often related to a borrower's ability to generate an income through employment, as well as access to any savings in the event of unemployment or financial stress;
- the appetite of corporate institutions to outsource arrears management can be affected by a number of matters, including but not limited to, a change in economic outlook, a change in laws or regulations, a change in accounting policies or practices, the consolidation of creditors, increased reliance on debt collection agencies or increased sophistication in internal collection efforts; and
- negative publicity or reputational damage to the receivables management industry as a whole which may be caused by debt collection techniques employed by sector participants that are not in line with the expectations of the general community or cause, among other things, distress in the general community through unfair treatment, harassment or any other number of unfair practices. These practices may become publicised and result in Pioneer's vendor partners restricting, or ceasing to sell debt portfolios.

Accordingly, risks for Pioneer include:

- insufficient debt portfolios becoming available for purchase. A number of factors can impact the number and suitability of debt portfolios available for purchase including but not limited to economic conditions which result in Pioneer's vendor partners or potential new debt sellers having insufficient (or any) under-performing debt portfolios to sell; and
- increased competition in the purchased debt portfolio market which could result in competitors offering higher prices for debt portfolios. This could result in lower margins for Pioneer, if Pioneer has to increase its portfolio acquisition costs.

(f) Purchase of debt portfolios

When Pioneer acquires debt portfolios from its vendor partners, it assumes the risk that the accounts within the portfolios will not be repaid in full or at all. However, a number of steps are undertaken by Pioneer before proceeding with an acquisition, in order to minimise this risk. These include the following:

- Pioneer seeks to purchase only debt portfolios that comprise the type of accounts that it understands well and has the competency and experience to conduct due diligence on, price appropriately, and recover an amount that is at least in line with its expectations at the time of purchase;
- currently, Pioneer focuses on certain types of debt portfolios that it considers to be its core competencies. The majority of Pioneer's purchases are personal loan and credit card portfolios. Pioneer also purchases consumer leases, consumer rental agreements and transactional accounts. Pioneer may enter into new types of portfolio purchases subject to being satisfied with the conduct of due diligence on the portfolios targeted; and

- Pioneer has to date purchased accounts from reputable financial institutions, including Australia's major banks and has not purchased accounts held by customers that it understands were regarded as credit impaired or "non-conforming" applicants at the time of applying for the loan from the original vendor partner.

(g) Existing debt portfolios and recovery of accounts

Pioneer purchases debt portfolios which often consist of a substantial number of accounts without contact details and for which the seller of the portfolio has made numerous attempts to collect. Such accounts may subsequently be deemed uncollectable and written off. Pioneer's strategy for maximising its customer payments over time is to minimise discounts offered for early payment and encourage customers who cannot meet the payment schedule under their existing loan agreement to enter into a new arrangement, known as a payment arrangement. Not all customers with a payment arrangement pay on time, all of the time, or at all. In addition, some customers will not enter into a payment arrangement. Therefore, it may take a significant amount of time to recover on accounts and there is no guarantee that Pioneer will recover any or all of the accounts comprising a debt portfolio.

Changes in macroeconomic factors such as an increase in interest rates and cost of living may impact on recovery of accounts. In addition, Pioneer may not be able to identify macroeconomic trends or make changes in its purchasing strategies in a timely manner.

While Pioneer expects its existing debt portfolios to provide customer payments in the future, there can be no guarantee customer payments will be consistent with historical performance or will meet forecast rates. The statistical models and analytical tools that Pioneer uses in its business to assess and analyse debt portfolios may prove to be inaccurate and Pioneer may not achieve anticipated customer payments which could lead to valuation impairments on portfolios.

If the assumptions used by Pioneer in its models are incorrect or if some of the accounts in a debt portfolio behave differently from the way Pioneer expects, this could result in a loss of value in a portfolio after purchase and a continuing deterioration in value over time as actual revenue can deviate significantly from the revenue estimates produced by Pioneer's pricing model as accounts age.

If the value of Pioneer's debt portfolios deteriorates, or Pioneer is unable to collect sufficient amounts on its portfolios, it may not be able to take advantage of opportunities for further portfolio purchases as they arise. Ultimately, all portfolios have a finite life and must be replaced with new portfolios.

(h) Technology

Pioneer is heavily reliant on technology to manage its day to day operations. Should an event or series of events result in the loss of access to primary and business critical information and communication technology systems, data processing capabilities and/or network connectivity, for an extended period it would affect Pioneer's ability to operate in the normal course of business and result in significant financial risk in terms of loss of ability to liquidate portfolios and report on revenues and manage working capital and cashflow.

(i) Staffing

Pioneer's success depends on identifying, hiring, training and retaining skilled personnel and senior management. Pioneer needs to retain its existing trained workforce and attract new personnel as it grows. Competition for such personnel is keen and there can be no assurance that Pioneer will always be successful in attracting and retaining such personnel.

If a significant number of staff were to leave Pioneer, within a short period of time, Pioneer may suffer operational difficulties.

(j) Reliance on key personnel

Pioneer is substantially reliant on the expertise and abilities of its key personnel in overseeing the day-to-day operations of its business. There can be no assurance given that there will be no detrimental impact on Pioneer if one or more of these employees cease their employment with Pioneer.

(k) Loss of key relationships

A significant decrease in the volume of debt portfolios available for purchase from any significant vendor partner on acceptable terms would force Pioneer to seek alternative sources of portfolios to purchase. In addition to the factors that impact the supply of debt portfolios generally, vendor partners with whom Pioneer has strategic relationships may not continue to sell debt portfolios to Pioneer on desirable terms or in acceptable quantities, and Pioneer may not be able to replace such portfolios with portfolios from other debt vendors. A debt vendor's decision to sell a debt portfolio to Pioneer is based on various factors, including the price and terms offered and the quality of Pioneer's reputation, scale, track record of completed transactions and compliance history.

The loss of a key relationship with a vendor partner could jeopardise Pioneer's existing relationships with other vendor partners or its ability to establish new relationships with other vendor partners. Pioneer may be unable to find alternative sources from which to purchase debt portfolios and, even if such purchases could be successfully replaced, the search could take time or the portfolio could be of lower quality or higher cost, any of which could materially and adversely affect Pioneer's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The loss of a significant key relationship, or the loss of a number of key relationships at the same time, could prevent or restrict Pioneer's ability to purchase debt portfolios at current or forecast levels. This could impact profitability materially.

(l) Regulatory and legislative risks

Pioneer operates in an industry with a strict legal and regulatory framework. Any failure by Pioneer to comply with its Australian Credit License ('ACL') and applicable laws and regulations relating to the purchase of debt portfolios, collection on the accounts it acquires, the broader consumer credit industry and National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009 (Cth) matters could result in the suspension, termination or impairment of Pioneer's ACL or the termination of certain forward flow agreements ('FFAs') and therefore could adversely affect Pioneer's reputation, its business and/or result in substantial losses.

Changes in the regulatory environment relating to the credit industry generally could have an effect on Pioneer's future business, operations and financial performance. Pioneer is not currently aware of any specific material changes in relevant regulations or policy which are likely to materially adversely affect Pioneer or its business.

Pioneer must ensure that there are no breaches of its ACL, the National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009 (Cth), the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (Cth), the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth), the National Consumer Credit Protection Regulations 2010 and the National Credit Code or other relevant existing legislation in relation to its practices. Further compliance is also required to relevant sections of the Corporations Act.

Breaches of legislation or licence conditions or adverse changes in government policy can have significant consequences for Pioneer. Potential consequences include:

- civil and/or criminal penalties;
- significantly increased compliance costs;
- variation or imposition of additional licence conditions or loss or suspension of licences;
- temporary or permanent banning orders being made;
- being forced to change business practices;
- termination of certain FFAs;
- litigation action being taken against Pioneer;
- imposition of enforceable undertakings or fines;
- reputational damage or reduction of the desirability of the Pioneer brand; and
- adverse effects on Pioneer's ability to retain existing business and attract new business.

Pioneer is aware of the importance of regulatory compliance and potential adverse publicity associated with any actual or alleged non-compliance. Regular staff training, close supervision and its call review process assists with ensuring that a culture of regulatory compliance is maintained by Pioneer. Pioneer has compliance systems to identify and rectify actual or potential instances of non-compliance. These compliance systems include compliance and cultural review of employee calls to customers, regular employee counselling and training in relation to actual and potential breaches and senior management involvement in relation to any actual or potential non-compliance. This also assists in ensuring rapid resolution of any customer complaints and disputes.

Pioneer devotes significant resources to regulatory compliance. There is a risk that any new or changed legislation or regulations could require Pioneer to increase its spending on regulatory compliance and/or change its business practices. This could adversely affect Pioneer's profitability. There is a risk that such regulations could also make it uneconomic for Pioneer to continue to operate in places that it currently does business.

Pioneer complies with the requirements of the Corporations Act and the ASX with respect financial and key management personnel remuneration reporting. Changes in legislation including Australian Accounting Standards and / or their application to accounting policy may result in unanticipated outcomes which could materially and adversely affect Pioneer's business, financial condition and results of operations.

(m) Funding to purchase new debt portfolios

Pioneer's business depends on its ability to purchase debt portfolios at appropriate prices and then recover on the accounts in those portfolios.

Pioneer funds debt purchases by a combination of equity capital, debt and cash generated through revenue from operations. The ability of Pioneer to obtain this funding is dependent on Pioneer's performance and prospects as well as other factors outside the control of Pioneer including but not limited to general economic conditions and stock market conditions.

(n) Forward flow agreements

Pioneer purchases a significant amount of its debt portfolios under FFAs. The FFAs to which Pioneer is a party typically contain:

- termination clauses that allow the FFA to be terminated by the vendor partner in certain limited circumstances; and
- provisions which require Pioneer to "re-assign" particular accounts in specified circumstances.

As a result, Pioneer may be required to "re-assign" an account to a vendor partner on which it was successfully recovering which could lead to a decrease in revenue and profitability.

In a market of increased competition, Pioneer may be required to purchase debt portfolios at increased prices or alternatively reduce the number of portfolios it acquires if Pioneer is unable to fund a price increase at the then volume of purchase.

Pioneer generally contemplates future fluctuations in the value of the debt portfolios that it purchases through FFAs, but the statistical models and analytical tools that Pioneer uses in its business to assess and analyse debt portfolios may prove to be inaccurate. This could materially and adversely affect Pioneer's business, financial condition and results of operations.

(o) Future acquisitions

Pioneer may selectively pursue acquisitions to complement its organic growth. However, there can be no assurance that Pioneer will be able to identify suitable acquisition candidates at acceptable prices or complete and integrate acquisitions successfully. The successful implementation of acquisitions will depend on a range of factors. Even if successfully executed and integrated, there is no guarantee of future performance of those acquisitions. In addition, Pioneer's future acquisitions may subject Pioneer to unanticipated risks or liabilities or disrupt operations and divert management's attention and resources from Pioneer's day-to-day operations.

To the extent that acquisitions are not completed, are not successfully integrated with Pioneer's existing business or do not perform in line with expectations, the financial performance of Pioneer could be adversely impacted.

(p) Management of financial growth

The ability of Pioneer to achieve financial performance is dependent on a number of factors, not all of which are within the control of Pioneer.

In the future, Pioneer may require additional capital, whether by equity or debt, to explore and/or develop further business opportunities. There can be no assurance that Pioneer will be able to raise such capital on favourable terms, if at all.

The inability to raise additional capital, if required, may have a detrimental impact on Pioneer's financial performance and the ability of Pioneer to expand its business.

(q) Dilution risk

The capital structure of the Company will be impacted by the number of Shares and Options issued pursuant to the Offers, as summarised in Section 3.1.

Future capital raisings and issues of securities by the Company may also dilute the percentage ownership of the Company of existing Shareholders. Such capital raisings may be undertaken to pursue further business opportunities or to repay part or all of the Company's debt.

Shareholders' percentage ownership of the Company will also be diluted upon the exercise by the respective holders of the Company's convertible securities that are currently on issue and that may be issued in the future. This may include the Company's Options, Options and Rights under the Pioneer Equity Incentive Plan.

(r) Increased competition

Pioneer faces competition from new and existing purchasers of debt portfolios. Pioneer's current competitors and any new competitors may have or may in the future develop substantially greater or better financial, technical, personnel or other resources such as more effective pricing and collection models, more efficient operating structures, greater adaptability to changing market needs and more established relationships in the debt purchase industry.

Pioneer may be unable to compete with businesses that offer higher prices for debt portfolios and other businesses may develop other competitive advantages that Pioneer cannot match. This may reduce Pioneer's access to, and success in, purchasing new debt portfolios.

There can be no guarantee that the structure of and competition within the market that Pioneer competes will not change in a manner adverse to the interests of Pioneer.

In addition, there can be no guarantee that Pioneer's efforts to maintain or increase its market share will be successful or that any new ventures proposed will be achieved.

(s) Access to and use of data

Pioneer relies on data provided by multiple credit reference agencies, servicing partners and other sources. If any third party sources were to stop providing this data for any reason, including a change in laws or regulations, or if they were to considerably raise the price of their services, Pioneer's business could be materially and adversely affected.

If competitors are able to develop or procure similar or more effective systems or methods to develop and process data, or if Pioneer becomes unable to continue to acquire, aggregate or use such information and data in the manner or to the extent in which it is currently permitted, Pioneer may lose a competitive advantage and Pioneer's business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations could be materially and adversely affected.

(t) Economic factors

General economic conditions, such as interest rates, inflation, household disposable income, taxation, employment levels, consumer and business sentiment and market volatility may adversely impact Pioneer's activities, as well as its ability to fund those activities. There can be no guarantee that the current economic environment and receivables management sector conditions will remain the same and there is a risk that material adverse changes to general economic or industry conditions may have a material adverse impact on the financial performance of Pioneer, as a consequence of reduced customer or inability to service their obligations, leading to a loss of revenues. Changes in government monetary and regulatory policies could also affect Pioneer's business.

(u) Reputational risk

Pioneer's failure to protect its reputation could have a material adverse effect on Pioneer including its brand and profitability. Pioneer's brand could be jeopardised if it fails to maintain quality services or if Pioneer, or the third parties with whom it does business, fail to comply with regulations or accepted business practices (including ethical, social, product, labour and environmental standards, or related political considerations). If damage were to occur to Pioneer's reputation, the demand for Pioneer's services may be reduced and/or Pioneer's services may be boycotted. This will likely have an adverse effect on revenue margins, profitability and Pioneer's operations.

(v) Litigation

Other than as set out in this Prospectus, Pioneer is not currently involved in any material litigation, arbitration or government prosecution matters. There is a risk that Pioneer may in the future have disputes with its customers, regulators or other third parties (including payment disputes) and this may have an adverse impact on Pioneer's growth prospects, operating results and financial performance.

(w) Unforeseen expenses

Pioneer may be subject to significant unforeseen expenses or actions. This may include unplanned operating expenses, future legal actions or expenses in relation to future unforeseen events.

Pioneer expects that it will have adequate working capital to carry out its stated objectives however, there is the risk that additional funds may be required to fund such unforeseen expenses and Pioneer's future objectives.

5.2 General risks

Most of the general risks discussed below are outside the control of Pioneer and the Board and cannot be mitigated.

(a) Stock market volatility

The market price of the Shares and Options may rise or fall depending upon a range of factors beyond Pioneer's control and which are unrelated to Pioneer's operational performance. The price of the Shares listed on ASX may also be affected by a range of factors including Pioneer's financial performance and by changes in the business environment.

The Shares carry no guarantee in respect of profitability, dividends, return on capital, or the price at which they may trade on the ASX.

There are a number of national and international market factors that may affect the price of the Shares, including movements on international stock markets, economic conditions and general economic outlook, interest rates and exchange rates, inflation rates, commodity supply and demand, government taxation and royalties, legislation, monetary and other policy changes and general investors' perceptions. Neither Pioneer nor the Pioneer Directors have control over these factors.

(b) General economic conditions

The general economic climate may affect the performance of Pioneer. These factors include the general level of international and domestic economic activity, inflation and interest rates. These factors are beyond the control of Pioneer and the Pioneer Directors and their impact cannot be predicted.

(c) Changes in laws and government policy

Changes in laws and government policies (including changes to Pioneer's industry), both domestically and internationally, may adversely affect the financial performance or the current and proposed operations of Pioneer.

(d) Insurance risks

Although Pioneer maintains insurance, no assurance can be given that adequate insurance will continue to be available to Pioneer in the future on commercially acceptable terms.

(e) Government actions and other events

The impact of actions by domestic and international governments may affect Pioneer's activities, including in relation to its infrastructure, compliance with environmental regulations, export, taxation and royalties.

Events may occur within or outside Australia that could impact on the world economy, the financial services market, Pioneer's operations and the price of the Shares. These events include war, geopolitical incidents, acts of terrorism, civil disturbance, political intervention and natural disasters. Pioneer has only a limited ability to insure against some of these risks.

6. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

6.1 Litigation

Proceedings were commenced against the Company in February 2022 for an alleged breach of agreement in relation to corporate advice allegedly provided, claiming up to $300,000. Pioneer disputes this and is defending the claim.

Given the nature of the Company's business, the Company and other members of the Group are often involved in relatively minor debt recovery legal proceedings.

Other than as set out in this Prospectus, to the Directors' knowledge, there is no other litigation, arbitration or proceedings pending against or involving the Company as at the date of this Prospectus.

6.2 Material contracts

The Company has not entered into any material contracts other than those which have been the subject of ASX announcements or referred to in this Prospectus.

6.3 Continuous Disclosure Obligations

The Company is a "disclosing entity" (as defined in section 111AC of the Corporations Act) for the purposes of section 713 of the Corporations Act and, as such, is subject to regular reporting and disclosure obligations. Specifically, like all listed companies, the Company is required to continuously disclose any information it has to the market which a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or the value of the Company's securities.

This Prospectus is a "transaction specific prospectus". In general terms a "transaction specific prospectus" is only required to contain information that:

- (a) has been excluded from a continuous disclosure notice in accordance with the ASX Listing Rules; and
- (b) investors and their professional advisors would reasonably require for the purpose of making an informed assessment of:
 - (i) the assets and liabilities, financial position and performance, profits and losses and prospects of the body; and
 - (ii) the rights and liabilities attaching to the securities being offered.

The prospectus must contain this information only to the extent to which it is reasonable for investors and their professional advisors to expect to find such information in the prospectus.

It is not necessary to include general information in relation to all of the assets and liabilities, financial position, profits and losses or prospects of the issuing company.

This Prospectus is intended to be read in conjunction with the publicly available information in relation to the Company which has been notified to ASX and does not include all of the information that would be included in a prospectus for an initial public offering of securities in an entity that is not already listed on a stock exchange. It has been prepared in accordance with section 713 of the Corporations Act. Investors should therefore have regard to the other publicly available information in relation to the Company before making a decision whether or not to invest.

Having taken such precautions and having made such enquires as are reasonable, the Company believes that it has complied with the general and specific requirements of ASX as applicable from time to time throughout the 3 months before the issue of this Prospectus which required the Company to notify ASX of information about specified events or matters as they arise for the purpose of ASX making that information available to the stock market conducted by ASX.

Information that is already in the public domain has not been reported in this Prospectus other than that which is considered necessary to make this Prospectus complete.

The Company, as a disclosing entity under the Corporations Act, states that:

- (c) it is subject to regular reporting and disclosure obligations;
- (d) copies of documents lodged with ASIC in relation to the Company (not being documents referred to in section 1274(2)(a) of the Corporations Act) may be obtained from, or inspected at, the offices of ASIC; and

 - (iii) any continuous disclosure documents given by the Company to ASX in accordance with the ASX Listing Rules as referred to in section 674(1) of the Corporations Act after the lodgement of the annual financial report referred to in (i) and before the lodgement of this Prospectus with ASIC.

Copies of all documents lodged with ASIC in relation to the Company can be inspected at the registered office of the Company during normal office hours.

Details of documents lodged by the Company with ASX since the date of lodgement of the Company's latest annual report on 31 August 2021 and before the lodgement of this Prospectus with ASIC are set out in the table below.

The determination of non-executive Directors' remuneration within that maximum will be made by the Board having regard to the inputs and value to the Company of the respective contributions by each non-executive Director.

In addition, Directors are also entitled to be paid reasonable travelling, hotel and other expenses incurred by them respectively in or about the performance of their duties as Directors.

6.10 Consents

Chapter 6D of the Corporations Act imposes a liability regime on the Company (as the offeror of the Securities), the Directors, the persons named in the Prospectus with their consent as proposed directors, any underwriters, persons named in the Prospectus with their consent having made a statement in the Prospectus and persons involved in a contravention in relation to the Prospectus, with regard to misleading and deceptive statements made in the Prospectus. Although the Company bears primary responsibility for the Prospectus, the other parties involved in the preparation of the Prospectus can also be responsible for certain statements made in it.

Each of the parties referred to in this Section:

- (a) does not make, or purport to make, any statement in this Prospectus other than those referred to in this section; and

Electronic sub-registers also mean ownership of securities can be transferred without having to rely upon paper documentation.

Further monthly statements will be provided to holders if there have been any changes in their security holding in the Company during the preceding month.

The information may also be used from time to time and disclosed to persons inspecting the register, including bidders for the Applicant's securities in the context of takeovers, regulatory bodies including the Australian Taxation Office, authorised securities brokers, print service providers, mail houses and the share registry.
