

Cash Converters Renews Securitisation Facility

Cash Converters International Limited (ASX: CCV) (“Cash Converters” or “the Company”) is pleased to announce that it has renewed its loan securitisation facility with Fortress Investment Group (“Fortress”).

Renewal Summary

- Four-year maturity term commencing 16 June 2022.
- $150.0m drawdown capacity maintained, with improved advance rates.
- Refinanced on competitive terms with extended tenor

Cash Converters Managing Director, Sam Budiselik stated: “While other funding proposals were received and considered by the Board, the renewal with Fortress was the most commercial and strategically aligned option. We are pleased to continue our relationship with Fortress as a long-term funder, particularly given the growth in our loan book, reaching an unaudited gross value of over $211.3m at 31 May, up 20% on the prior comparative period. With this renewal secured ahead of expiry on improved commercial terms we are well positioned to continue executing on our strategic initiatives.”

ENDS

Authorised for release by the Board of Cash Converters International Limited.
