NUBU will be filing for formal New Zealand government registration with the Ministry of Health NZ for both Zenivol® and HOPE™ 1.

Zelira Therapeutics Managing Director, Dr. Oludare Odumosu commented:

“Our partnership agreement with NUBU aligns to Zelira's global expansion strategy across our Rx (Pharmaceutical) portfolio. We are delighted to be partnering with NUBU, New Zealand's largest medicinal cannabis distribution company, with existing strategic partnerships already in place with many of New Zealand's largest pharmacy groups.

Zelira's entry into the highly-regulated New Zealand medicinal cannabis market is further testament of Zelira's world class pharmaceutical manufacturing and commitment to producing the highest quality, evidence-based cannabinoid medicines.”

NUBU Chief Executive Officer, Mark Dye commented:

“The team at NUBU are incredibly excited about bringing Zelira's evidence-based medicines to New Zealand patients.

Although there is no shortage of interest in medicinal cannabis here in New Zealand, there is a lack of data. Prescribers especially are calling out for clinical evidence so as they can prescribe with confidence, and the arrival of Hope and Zenivol (along with the associated research) will be welcome addition to the medicinal cannabis landscape.”

- Supply of finished dosages of Zenivol® and HOPE™ 1 from Australia to New Zealand
