EXTENSION OF ENTITLEMENT ISSUE

January 11, 2022: Harvest Technology Group Limited (ASX:HTG) (“Harvest”, “Company”, “Group” or “HTG”) refers to its announcement on December 13, 2021 of a 1-for-10 accelerated non-renounceable entitlement offer and to the offer booklet released to ASX on December 20, 2021 in relation to the Retail Entitlement Offer.

The Company advises that it is extending the closing date of the Entitlement Offer to 5pm on January 28, 2022. The extension is to provide eligible shareholders further time to receive and complete their applications and participate in the Entitlement Offer following postal delays currently being experienced due to the Christmas period and COVID-19 restrictions.

As highlighted in the investor presentation released to the market on December 13, 2021, advanced commercial discussions are currently underway between Harvest and several global partners to enter into reseller agreements for Harvest’s Infinity products. Whilst there is no certainty that the agreements in discussion will proceed, the HTG Board has further decided to extend the retail offer whilst these negotiations are ongoing.

The revised timetable for the remaining dates of the Entitlement Offer is set out below.
