Scheme Meeting Adjourned

As foreshadowed in the announcement by Amcom Telecommunications Limited ("Amcom") (ASX:AMM) on 15 May 2015, the meeting of Amcom's shareholders to vote on the scheme of arrangement under which Vocus Communications Limited ("Vocus") (ASX:VOC) would acquire Amcom ("Scheme") was today adjourned by the Chairman to a date, time and place that will be notified to Amcom shareholders by an announcement to ASX and a release on Amcom's website.

No resolutions were put to today's meeting as a result of the adjournment.

The Amcom Board supports the decision of the Chairman and considers the adjournment of the Scheme meeting is in the best interests of Amcom shareholders and is necessary to allow Amcom shareholders sufficient time to consider Vocus' divestment of its interest in Amcom.

Shareholders will be sent a letter containing supplementary information in the coming weeks which may be relevant to their vote on the Scheme. The letter will be in a form reviewed by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission and approved by the Federal Court of Australia. The letter will include details with respect to the adjourned Scheme meeting, the last day for receipt of proxy votes and the voting record date for the Scheme.

Amcom shareholders who have questions regarding the Scheme or the adjournment should contact Amcom's shareholder information line on 1800 992 673 (within Australia) or +61 1800 992 673 (outside of Australia) Monday to Friday between 7.00 am and 4.30 pm (Perth time).
