Ionic Industries Update

Strategic Energy Resources Limited (ASX: SER) is pleased to announce that the Ionic Industries Limited (Ionic) team at Monash has had significant peer validation of their work in graphene oxide based nano-filtration membranes, being released in the high impact journal 'Nature Communications'

The press release can be seen on the Ionic Industries website as noted below in the Blog Section.

SER currently holds approximately a 19% equity interest in Ionic following its demerger from the SER group in June 2015.
